Late Reports From Forest Fire District Increase Horrors of the Situation.

WITH CHARRED CORPSES ENTIRE COUNTRY STREWN

Ground Is So Hot That Rescue Parties Are Driven Back---At Least 5,000 People Are Homeless and Without Food--Sights in the Burned District Are Appalling.

Rainy River, Minn., October 9.—The country between Warroad and Baudette is undoubtedly strewn with charred corpses. Three days have passed and hundreds of well-known settlers and their families have not been heard from. Four entire families were found dead near Baudette and searchers believe that farther in the interior the sights to be met will be appalling.

Only 50 men are out investigating conditions and there should be hundreds. But the ground is so hot that it is impossible for anyone to travel far over it and even experienced woodsmen are in here tonight dismayed.

Only fourteen bodies have been brought to Baudette and nineteen were seen along Rapid river. One hundred and ninety typhoid fever patients, removed from Old Baudette to shacks in New Baudette, are suffering for necessities and many will die.

The towns of Roosevelt and Williams are threatened again tonight, as the wind is rising. One thousand refugees from Pitt, Spooner and Baudette have been taken to International Falls, Ranier, Virginia, Duluth and Rainy River. Fully 5,000 are homeless.

HORRORS OF THE SITUATION INCREASED BY LATE REPORTS

Warroad, Minn., October 10.—Latest reports of the forest fires in the Rainy river region of Minnesota tonight increase the horrors of the situation, if not the number of lives lost. Esti-

COURT ENJOINS CITY INSPECTOR

Coal Company Files Petition in Court.

Standard Co. Claims That Third Paragraph of Ordinance Creating Office of Inspector of Weights and Measures Is Arbitrary and Oppressive.

The city inspector of weights and measures, W. T. Buchanan, has been enjoined from stopping coal wagons on the streets and weighing them as he is directed to do by the city ordinance which created his office.

The bill of injunction was filed in the superior court Monday and Judge Bell signed a temporary restraining order and set the case for a hearing on October 29.

The bill was filed by Attorney C. L. Pettigrew, who represents the Standard Coal Company. The petition sets forth that the third paragraph of the ordinance creating the office of the inspector of weights and measures is arbitrary and oppressive and should be declared of no force by the court. It is declared by the petitioner that the paragraph complained of first gives the inspector the power and right to enter coal yards and there see that the weights are correct, and that to afterwards stop the wagons on the streets and force the drivers to go to some place to have the wagons and loads weighed is oppressive; that the city has no official scales on which to weigh wagons for the purpose of ascertaining if the weights are correct.

The Inspector Is Served.

The papers were served on the inspector and he will place the matter in the hands of the city attorney. In speaking about the injunction, Mr. Buchanan said:

"I think the law a reasonable and good one. I have only sought to carry out the law and the fact that somebody has deemed it necessary to have me enjoined by the courts shows that I am on the job, doesn't it?"

The inspector has been very busy for some time and among his duties is the stopping of coal wagons on the streets every now and then to see that the loads weigh what the delivery slips call for. The only part of the city ordinance that is attacked by the injunction is that portion which relates to the inspector stopping coal wagons on the streets for the purpose of having them weighed.

The fight in court will probably result in a very interesting legal battle.

SHE HANGED HERSELF WITH MOSQUITO NET

Mrs. Mary Foley Commits Rash Act During Temporary Aberration.

New Orleans, October 10.—During a temporary mental aberration, Mrs. Mary Foley formed a noose out of a mosquito bar and hanged herself in her room at the Louisiana Retreat today.

She died from strangulation before a nurse could cut her down.

Mrs. Foley is survived by a son, W. F. Foley, of Stockton, Cal.

MONKS AND NUNS ARE BEING DRIVEN FROM PORTUGAL

Republican Government Is Resolved to Get Rid of Religious Orders.

PROPERTY OF JESUITS WILL BE CONFISCATED

Jesuits Have Enormous Lot of Property and Confiscation Will Bring Rich Fund to the Republicans—Decree of Expulsion Has Incited Mobs to Attack Monks and Nuns.

KING MANUEL DECLARES HIS CONSCIENCE IS CLEAR

Gibraltar, October 10.—Before leaving Portugal, King Manuel sent the following autograph letter to the Portuguese premier:

"I am compelled, owing to the stress of circumstances, to embark, but wish to inform the people of Portugual that my conscience is clear. I have always acted as a faithful Portuguese, and I have always done my duty. I will ever remain at heart a true Portuguese, and hope that my country will do me justice and try to understand my feelings. My departure must in no way be taken as an act of abdication."

Lisbon, October 10.—The provisional government is fixed in its determination to drive the monks and nuns out of the country. Minister of the Interior Alomeida will personally conduct the examinations in the cases of all foreigners connected with the religious orders.

A decree was published in The Official Gazette today expelling the Jesuits and the foreign members of the orders. In the case of Portuguese monks and nuns, however, these may return to their families, if they re-

BY AUTO WINN WILL REACH AND SPEAK IN EVERY WARD

This evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, Courtland S. Winn, candidate for mayor, and a number of other speakers, will make the "swing around the circle" and speak at four different places to the voters of every ward in the city. To do this two wards will unite at one place. The meetings will be held as follows:

The second and third wards will unite in a rally at the county court house; the seventh and tenth wards will unite at Caldwell's hall in West End, corner of Lee and Gordon streets; the fourth and ninth wards will unite at 370½ Edgewood avenue, the fifth and eighth wards will unite at the corner of Hemphill avenue and Emmett street.

The citizens of the first ward will be invited to attend the meeting in West End, and the citizens of the sixth ward will be invited to attend the meeting at either Hemphill avenue or the court house.

Mr. Winn will make the swing around the circle in an automobile and speak at all the places.

The other speakers will be Colonel Walter P. Andrews, R. A. Broyles and Robert B. Blackburn, and such others as may be called upon. All the speakers will make the swing around the circle.

The meetings will all start at the same time, 7:30 o'clock. It is believed that large crowds will attend all the meetings.

Mr. Winn will also speak next Thursday evening at an open-air meeting on the corner of Leggetts avenue and Pearl street to voters in the third ward.

CHARLES MORSE MASTERS USE OF THE TYPEWRITER

When Mrs. Charles W. Morse paid her regular monthly visit yesterday afternoon to her husband, serving his term of 15 years in the federal prison, she learned that he had just mastered the art of using a typewriter, and that as the result of the interest he had taken in it, thus diverting his attention from his surroundings, he was in much better health than on her last visit.

He is at present engaged in using his knowledge of this machine in collecting data about the health of his fellow-prisoners, for the guidance of the physician of the prison.

Morse takes as much pleasure in his new accomplishment as he did in former years in putting through any of his finanial coups. Every day finds him more proficient in the use of the typewriter.

Mrs. Morse arrived in the city in the morning and in the afternoon made her visit to the prison, where she gave a number of business papers to Morse for him to sign. Today she will be allowed to see him once more, and then she will leave the city for New York, to continue her work in getting up petitions for his pardon.

PRAYERS CHANGED FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Important Action by the Episcopal Convention.

Hereafter Episcopalians on Good Friday Will Not Mention "Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics" in Their Prayers. To Change Name of Church.

Cincinnati, October 10.—Resolutions and amendments calling for the changing of the name of the church; reorganization of the board of missions; a general overhauling of the methods of examination at the primaries and changes in the canonist hearing on numerous subjects and the question of revising the church canons regarding marriage and divorce, were under discussion at today's meetings of the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, in session here.

After the house of deputies had finished discussing the work among the Jews, the house of bishops issued a decree stating that Jews converted to

FIRESTONE, 41, OVERLAND, 42, TO GO ON TOUR

Two New Entries Ready for 'Round-the-State Contest Next Week.

ALBANY IS STIRRED UP AND WILL PUT IN SEVERAL

Cities on Route of Tour Making Arrangements to Afford Contestants Every Possible Comfort and Facility---Several Prizes Are Offered for Best Roads on the Route.

41—Columbus Buggy Company, Columbus, Ohio, Firestone-Columbus—$1,800.

42—Overland Southern Motor Company, Atlanta, Overland—$1,250.

Two new entries Monday for the 'Round-the-State-Tour.

The Firestone, a car that has easily made good in this section, is represented in Atlanta by E. D. Crane & Co. This entry is a touring car, model 86-A, 1911.

H. D. McKinstry, of Atlanta, will drive.

Lindsey Hopkins, president of the Overland Southern Company, will accompany one of his cars, perhaps the classy, speedy roadster which he put in Monday. He is expecting two more new cars to reach Atlanta this week, and if they come he will put them in, too.

Mr. Hopkins has invited as his guest on the tour Al Fairbrother, editor of Everything, formerly published in Atlanta, but now appearing from Greensboro, N. C. Mr. Fairbrother is one of the most unique newspaper writers in America, and his presence on the tour will decidedly add to the gayety of the event.

Albany Is Stirred Up.

Tom Newell, of Albany, who came up Monday, stated that his city will send in some entries in the next day or two.

Felix Edwards, sheriff of Dougherty county, has announced his intention of going in his Chalmers.

C. D. Smith, who drove a Jackson in The Journal-Herald run to New York, has bought a new car and will probably go on the Round-the-State Tour.

The Macon Telegraph has started in to round up some entries from Macon, and expects results by the middle of the week.

WEST MITCHELL TO BE WIDENED

West Side Club Holds a Rousing Meeting.

Important steps for the improvement of the western part of the city were decided upon last night at an enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the West Side Progressive club.

As a result of the public spirit actuating the members of the club, West Mitchell street, from the viaduct to Davis street, will be widened and the grade changed, and Magnolia and Foundry streets will be extended through to Ashby street.

As W. H. Terrell, one of the leading members of the club, expressed it, at the close of the session, "I think it was a pretty big night's work for our club."

Must Widen Now or Never.

The movement to widen West Mitchell is taken at this time because a number of stores will soon be erected near Elliott street, and unless the street is widened now it will be impossible to do it in the future.

It was stated at the meeting that three-fourths of the property-owners on the street on the south side had already agreed to give the necessary land, and that not a single owner approached had refused. The street will probably be widened ten feet.

Some of the south side owners are giving money as well as land, but as a rule the owners on the north side will be asked to give the money to care for the changes and the repairs which will have to be made on the south side, while the south siders will give the land.

A committee, consisting of James McDonald, J. L. Mayson, W. H. Terrell, George Breitenbucher, and I. Springer was named to see the city engineer and get from him plans and drawings for the necessary changes on the street, and the contracts for conveying the land to the city.

Another committee, consisting of Dr. E. L. Connally, Dr. A. L. Curtis, and J. R. Seawright, was appointed to see the street car company and ask their co-operation.

Will Extend Two Streets.

Then the matter of the extension of Magnolia and Foundry streets was taken up.

The land through which Magnolia street will have to be extended to Ashby belongs to Dr. E. L. Connally and the firm of Koch & Stahl.

It was stated that Koch & Stahl would not give their land. Dr. Connally said that he would give the necessa-

40,665 PEOPLE IN CENTRAL CITY

Remarkable Gain of 74.7 Per Cent in Ten Years.

Washington, October 10.—The population of Macon, Ga., is 40,665, an increase of 17,393 or 74.7 per cent as compared with 23,272 in 1900.

Macon Enjoying Great Prosperity.

Macon, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—The census report tonight was no surprise to the city. Macon has experienced unpresedented wrowth in the past ten year in all directions. Vineville, south, west and east Macon have been annexed by small sections, the greater portion having been taken in during Mayor Moore's administration a year ago. The last fight in this line came early in the present year when East Macon and the southern and western portions of the residence sections were annexed.

This, however, never brought the suburbs into the city limits as they should have been taken. Where the suburban car lines now touch many beautiful homes have been constructed in the past four years. At the very moment the census is announced more buildings and more substantial enlargement of the population is under way than has ever been known.

One great skyscraper, large hotel improvements and the construction of the Central Railway shops, besides Mount Desales academy, new costly Y. M. C. A. building, a new Masonic temple for Georgia and a half dozen other very large enterprises are under way.

That Macon has nearly doubled her population is no very strange thing. It will be done again in the next decade.

WATSON CONFESSES BEFORE METHODISTS

Thomson, Ga., Octoeber 10.—(Special.)—The Ladies' Home Mission Society had charge of the services at the Methodist Episcopal church last night, and Hon. Thomas E. Watson delivered the address.

Mr. Watson spoke of the great revival that has just closed at this church and said he thought old Thomson was in better shape spiritually than he had seen the town in a long time.

He confessed that he had much temper, and was partly to blame for all mard feelings that existed between him and the people here, but was willing to meet all half way, and intended to live a useful Christian life from now on.

There were about 1,000 people present.

HEROISM OF GIRL COSTS HER LIFE

Trying to Rescue Brother and Sister, All Were Killed by Train.

Olla Matthews, aged 9, and Raymond Matthews, aged 4, two children of Tom Matthews, a negro, were killed and their 3-year-old sister, Tommie, fatally injured by train No. 1 on the Central of Georgia tracks at the Fernside crossing, near East Point, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Olla having heroically dashed in front of the engine in a vain attempt to save her brother and sister.

The children, returning from a visit to their grandmother, were going across the tracks at a point near the Gate City Oil Mills. Their attention being held by a switch engine on a side track, they did not notice the swiftly-approaching passenger train. Olla, crossing ahead of Raymond and Tommie, suddenly saw the train and looking back perceived that both Raymond and Tommie had stumbled and fallen on the track. She rushed back and was in the act of pulling them out of danger when the train rushed upon them. The bodies of the younger children were thrown to the side of the track, while the body of Olla, mangled, torn and lifeless, was dragged for 200 feet.

After the train had come to a stop the employees and passengers did all they could for Raymond and Tommie, but their condition seemed fatal from the first. Raymond died on the train en route to Atlanta. Tommie lies fatally wounded at the Grady hospital.

Tom Matthews, the father of the children, arrived at the scene of the accident shortly after it had occurred and was distracted by the sight of his lifeless and dying young ones. The pity of the spectators was aroused and a liberal collection taken up for him and his family, which consists of his wife and four children besides those in the tragedy.

Conductor Lucius Harris, of the train, has been in the service of the Central of Georgia for 44 years, but up to Monday had never been in a train involved in an accident which resulted in the loss of life.

MAYOR ROBERT MADDOX SUCCEEDS SAM PARROTT

At a meeting of the Capital City Club last night, Mayor Robert F. Maddox was elected vice president of the club, to succeed the late Samuel F. Parrott. John E. Mprphy was elected to take the place of Mr. Parrott as chairman of the building committee and Dr. W. S. Elkin to fill the vacancy created in the committee.

GEO. W. MITCHELL FATALLY STABBED

Thought to Have Been Done by Negro.

George W. Mitchell, aged about 35, a man well known in Atlanta, was perhaps fatally stabbed shortly before midnight on Auburn avenue while returning from the circus.

It is believed by the police that his assailant was a negro, and that a desperate struggle ensued before the knife was plunged into his back in dangerous proximity to the heart. No clue has been found throwing light on the affair.

Weak from the loss of blood, Mitchell staggered into the soft drink stand of Williams & Virgiotes, at the corner of Auburn and Piedmont avenues, and asked for a piece of paper.

On a paper bag he wrote his name, the word "negroes," and fainted as he was in the act of writing out the address of his wife. All that he wrote about her was "Lillie."

Gus Williams, one of the proprietors, immediately called out the Grady hospital ambulance and in a few minutes surgeons at the hospital were working to save the man's life. It is believed that he has no chance to recover.

Mitchell formerly lived with his wife over the Greek's establishment where he fainted away.

BOYS' CLUB CELEBRATES OPENING OF NEW CLUB

Interesting Gymnastic Exhibition Given Before Large Audience.

Celebrating the beginning of its fourth year and the opening of the new clubhouse at 52-4 Houston street, the Boys' Club gave an entertainment last night to a large audience, which in addition to being great fun for the members, was a delight to the many guests of the occasion. The program consisted of a number of interesting gymnastic exhibitions, including an Indian torchlight drill, which brought forth great applause.

Visitors to the club were much impressed with the work. J. T. Thompson will organize a military club, Holt Weaver a debating club and George Smith will help along the Hikers' Club.

George C. Dorr, superintendent, announces that members of the Rivers branch will have a chance to compete in a contest for an automobile trip to New York. Tuesday morning the directors will meet at the clubhouse.

YOUNG LADY HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Miss Ethel Drohan Is Seriously Injured.

Miss Ethel Drohan, 22 years of age, a trained nurse of Baltimore, Md., engaged for the past month at the home of Mrs. Bryan Grant, 48 Forrest avenue, was struck and seriously injured by an automobile last night as she was waiting to board a trolley car at Peachtree street and Porter Place.

Homer F. Curran, manager of the Orpheum theater, who lives at the Martinique apartments, owner and driver of the automobile, rushed Miss Drohan to the Grady hospital and then surrendered to the police.

Lady Severely Injured.

Miss Drohan was severely injured about the head and remained unconscious for nearly three hours. When she awoke a hemorrhage ensued and attending physicians fear that the base of the brain is affected. Later at night it was said that she was resting nicely.

Mr. Curran is being held at police headquarters pending the outcome of the young woman's injuries. Mr. Grant, Miss Drohan's employer, appeared at the station shortly after the accident and signed a $200 bond for Mr. Curran's appearance in police court Tuesday afternoon. However, Assistant Chief Jett thought it best to detain Curran until the exact extent of Miss Drohan's injuries are determined.

Miss Drohan had intended joining a young lady friend of her profession down town and attending the evening performance of Ringling Brothers' circus. She was waiting for her car just in front of the First Methodist church.

Miss Drohan was standing in the street a few inches from the curbing when Mr. Curran, driving alone in his large Cadillac car, hove in sight bound for town.

Machine Going Slowly.

He was going at a slow rate of speed, he claims, and sounded his horn several times, thinking that Miss Drohan would step aside. But she must have thought that he would turn out of her way for she did not move, Curran claims, and in the next instant the fender of the car had swept her down.

Miss Drohan fell violently, her head striking the curbstone. She received a deep scalp wound from the fall and was rendered unconscious.

Almost immediately after being struck the automobile had stopped and Mr. Curran, with the assistance of a bystander, lifted the young woman in the car and hurried with her to the Grady hospital.

At the hospital Mr. Curran gave himself up to Call Officers Posey and Hood, who had been sent out to investigate the accident. He is being held under a blanket charge of disorderly conduct until the investigation before the recorder.

Mr. Curran is a native of New York.

ADVERTISING TALKS

WRITTEN BY

WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.

A young lady in the advertising department of a New York newspaper recited a vacation experience the other day, which, in my opinion, pointed a GOOD ADVERTISING MORAL.

She had been prevailed upon to shoot at a mark with a shotgun. She had taken the gun, held it to her shoulder, glanced along the barrel and pulled the trigger. She got a badly bruised shoulder and did not try again. THE MARK HAD NOT BEEN TOUCHED.

Yet there is nothing more simple than hitting a mark with a shotgun. All you have to do is to get a gun with a straight barrel, use an honest cartridge, put your shoulder firmly to the rest, point directly at the mark and fire. You'll make a hit sure.

THE SAME RULE APPLIES TO ADVERTISING. Like the shotgun episode and everything else, there is a RIGHT WAY AND A WRONG WAY of doing it.

IF THE MEDIUM ISN'T RIGHT AND THE AIM IS POOR, if the shoulder of the advertiser is not right up firmly behind it, there will be a kick and a back action to it and THERE

MEN AND WOMEN Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. For good results use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

WILL BE NO RESULTS—there cannot be.

To come back to the shotgun. I guess if some one offered a crooked gun with a barrel like a corkscrew and told us he was an expert who never missed; that his gun had to be pointed to the sun and that then it would hit anything we desired on earth, a few people (cranks mostly) would believe it.

But YOU would not and I would not because IT WOULD NOT SEEM REASONABLE.

Why, then, should we believe or allow others to believe that advertising demands anything more than the few SIMPLE, TRUTHFUL THINGS that are reasonable?

Advertising only needs a STRAIGHT MEDIUM, TRUTHFUL COPY AND A MAN OR FIRM OF INTEGRITY to make it pay.

It really cannot fail with this combination to be a MIGHTY ASSET to a business. It might pay without them—but a gamble against the common sense of the American people never lasts.

How many people have tried to gamble on the cupidity of other people, and how disastrous has been their failure!

The turn of a card has won a fortune, but that is in one case out of a million. It is the same way with business.

The business that SUCCEEDS is the business that grows because its owners do not shoot at random—do not use bad powder or a poor cartridge. THEY SHOOT STRAIGHT AND BACK UP EVERYTHING THEY DO.

OPPOSES VIEWS OF PRESIDENT

Roosevelt Favors Federal Aid to Reclaim Swamps.

In His Speech at Arkansas State Fair, the Colonel Takes Issue Squarely With Taft. Record Crowd Greets Roosevelt.

Hot Springs, Ark., October 10.—Theodore Roosevelt placed himself on record here today as opposed to the view expressed by President Taft, of one phase of the work of conserving and developing the national resources of the country. Colonel Roosevelt declared that the federal government should do all it could legitimately to assist in the reclamation of the great swamp areas of the Mississippi valley.

In a speech at the national conservation congress at St. Paul, September 20, President Taft said that he believed that the work should be done by the states themselves, and that he deprecated the idea that the national government should do it.

As soon as Colonel Roosevelt reached Hot Springs today Governor Donaghey and several other men who are interested in obtaining help from the national government in the reclamation project, asked him to touch upon the subject in his address at the Arkansas state fair. Colonel Roosevelt promised them to do so.

In his speech the Colonel said:

"They are things about the open country that should be done by the government—that is, by the representatives of all of us, working together.

"Arkansas is one of a group of states with an enormous area of swamp land. Until drained the land is worthless, and when drained it is a block of the most fertile land in the entire nation.

"The national government must do its part in helping in the drainage, because the drainage is an interstate affair. Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi are all concerned and ought all to work together, and the national government should render all possible legitimate aid."

In his St. Paul speech, President Taft expressed a view directly opposite.

It is estimated that there are 25,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the states mentioned by Colonel Roosevelt, and Governor Donaghey said today that the question of their reclamation was a vital one.

Colonel Roosevelt made his remarks on the subject in connection with a speech on "New Nationalism," in which he urged, as he has done in his other speeches during his present southern trip, that the power of the central government be extended to deal with present-day problems in the way Colonel Roosevelt believes they should be dealt with.

One of the largest crowds which Colonel Roosevelt has addressed during his southern trip was at the fair grounds to hear him.

CENTRAL RAILWAY ELECTS OFFICERS

President Hanson Congratulated Upon His Recovery.

Savannah, Ga., October 10.—All the officers and directors of the Central railway were reelected at the annual meeting of the stockholders this morning except C. C. Williams, secretary to the president, who resigned.

The Ocean Steamship directors and officers were reelected.

Resolutions congratulating President J. F. Hanson upon his recovery were passed.

THEATERS

At the Grand.

Jefferson De Angelis has never disappointed an Atlanta audience, and he did not do so last night in the performance of the "Beauty Spot." Instead, it was a charmed and delighted audience that followed the development of the musical play from the "Wading Chorus" to the finale.

The music of the play by Reginald De Koven did not at any point rise to a level of unusual distinctiveness, but it was pleasing throughout, though it did not furnish any songs that will make popular hits.

During the development of the story there are lines and situations that are daring enough to be piquant, but never so pronounced as to be vulgar. The introduction of George J. MacFarlane, the hero, as Jacques Baccarel, an artist, and the presence of his artist friends, make frank discussion of paintings and anatomy not only natural but inevitable.

The painting of General Samovar's wife by the young artist who is in love with his daughter, turns out not so shocking after all.

De Angelis in his rendition of "Foolish Questions" and "I'm Going Crazy," displayed the old-time skill and vigor that made him such a jovial figure; but if an adverse criticism may be permitted, it would be a suggestion either to cut out, or cut down, the seashell song. It might be made to go if condensed, but at present it drags.

There were several agreeable voices in the cast last night, including those of George J. MacFarlane, Viola Gillette and Florence Martin. Miss Gillette also wore some elaborate gowns superbly, and Miss Martin by her dainty girlishness, easy grace and charming naivette was a more than attractive figure. Her duet with MacFarlane, "In a Hammock," made a more general appeal, probably, than any of her other numbers.

Charles W. Meyers was too pleasant to find fault with, but his Chickeree savors more of Broadway than Decatur street. There is no fault to find with his conception of the character, but he makes the pseudo Borneo prince talk like a yankee tourist in Florida.

The second scene in "The Beauty Spot" is particularly attractive, the costumes are fresh and pretty, and the chorus of both men and girls much above the ordinary in looks and voice.

"The Beauty Spot" will play Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Wednesday matinee and holds in store real enjoyment for all three audiences.

Blanche Walsh.

Actresses are well known for their fondness for pets. In their automobiles or carriages, even in the street cars, when they are forced to ride in those popular vehicles, there is usually to be seen a fluffy little animal which is somehow regarded as a regular doggie. Miss Walsh, the famous emotional actress, says she has no time for "penwiper purps," and the dainty little creatures are never to be seen in her arms or lap. She does love dogs, however, but they must be big strong ones. On her summer estate at Woods Hole, Mass., she has a number of St. Bernards, Great Danes and bull terriers. These formidable, or gentle animals—according to their moods—follow Miss Walsh about whenever they find her roaming over the grounds of the estate. Miss Walsh's appearance here at the Orpheum will be one of the principal offerings of the year.

"The Soul Kiss."

Thursday afternoon and night, when "The Soul Kiss" is presented at the Grand, local theatergoers will witness what is said to be a swagger, classy production, and a brilliant musical sensation. The story is told in two acts and ten scenes, with book and lyrics by Harry B. Smith and music by Maurice Levi. At least a dozen catchy numbers, each in their way a distinct novelty, are sung throughout the two acts of this dainty musical entertainment.

"Beulah."

"Beulah," dramatized from the book by Augusta J. Evans, whose St. Elmo was the most emphatic hit of the last theatrical season, will be seen at the Grand Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee, with Miss Janet Waldorf in the title role. The dramatization is the work of Miss Alice E. Ives, author of "The Brooklyn Handicap" and "The Village Postmaster." Miss Waldorf is a young actress who, several seasons ago, won distinction through her work as the co-star of E. J. Morgan in Hall Caine's play, "The Eternal City."

At the Forsyth.

Pleasing in every detail is the offering at the Forsyth this week. From the first act to the last there is every opportunity for satisfying the man who craves high-class vaudeville entertainment.

Leading in warmth of reception, Marshall Montgomery, ventriloquist, proved himself beyond a doubt the ablest artist in his line ever seen in Atlanta. Eating, drinking or smoking and keeping the audience in good humor with the witticisms of his manikin at the same time, is a task few men in his line are able to accomplish, and none so satisfactorily.

The Russian dancers, the headliner of the week, live up to their booking, the act being a novelty and the dancing and singing first-class. Karl, the violinist, the wonder of one string, makes a splendid impression. In Mlle. Rialta's act the woman is a graceful poser and the man blessed with a good voice. Irene Hobson and Charles Deland present a sketch which is a scream from start to finish. Tom Mahoney fills his place acceptably as story teller and singer, and Jester and Rogers do well on the skates.

At the Lyric.

"McFadden's Flats," the show that has the reputation of making millions laugh, made a few more smile during its performance at the Lyric last night.

It is one of these musical melanges so often advertised by the press agent, and makes every possible effort to keep a real plot from entering into the mixup.

Judging from the manner in which the audience laughed the show must be all right.

The real hit was the climax of the first act, when the Yellow Kid played baseball with the onlookers.

Mattie Boorum, as Mary Ellen Murphy, did mbost of the singing. Joe J. Sullivan, as McFadden, and Harry W. Barton as Jacob Baumgartner, and Jerry Sullivan and Claude Speck as the kids, were the leading funmakers.

"Battle in the Clouds."

As a conclusion to Pain's latest and greatest spectacle, "The Battle in the Clouds," Mr. Pain has selected a long list of new and novel aerial and set devices, many of them new this year, and to be seen for the first time in Atlanta at Ponce de Leon ball park, as they have been created especially for this exhibition.

Special devices, or set pieces, will be given each night. Pain's "Fountain of Light," displaying a fountain of fire, 90 feet high and 60 feet in diameter; the "Still Alarm," showing a country cottage bursting into flame, the motor fire engine approaches, the firemen are stoking. On arrival at the burning house, the hose is connected and a stream of fire played therefrom.

HANDS CRACKED AND PEELED

"About six years ago my hands began to crack and peel. I tried many remedies, but they grew worse all the time. At last they became so sore that it was impossible for me to do my housework. If I put my hands in water I was in agony; if I tried to cook, the heat caused intense pain. I consulted a doctor, but without the least satisfaction. After about a year of this suffering, I got my first relief when I tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. After using them for a week I found to my great delight that my hands were beginning to feel much better, the deep cracks began to heal up and stop running, and in a little while my hands were cured by using only one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I am very thankful to say that I have had no return of the skin disease since. I shall be glad if you will publish this so that others may know of Cuticura. Mrs. Minnie Drew, 23 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain, Mass., April 20, 1910."

For thirty years Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded speedy relief to tens of thousands of skin-tortured and disfigured sufferers from eczemas, rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings, from infancy to age, bringing comfort and peace to distracted households when all else failed.

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the civilized world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. Mailed free, 32-page Cuticura Book, "How to Care for and Treat the Skin and Scalp."

People Will Talk You Know

And that's the reason why Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are advertised so little now-a-days. They have made hundreds of thousands of cures in the past 40 years, and some of the grateful people whom they have restored to health are to be found almost everywhere. There's scarcely a hamlet that doesn't contain some. Look them up. Interview them. They are living, walking, active advertisements.

For Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines.

You can believe your neighbors. Therefore ask them. What cured them will very likely cure you, if similarly afflicted—only give them a good, fair trial.

It's a good, sound, common sense policy to use medicines only of KNOWN COMPOSITION, and which contain neither alcohol nor habit-forming drugs. The most intelligent people, and many of the most successful, conscientious physicians, follow this judicious course of action. The leading medical authorities, of all schools of medicine, endorse the ingredients composing Dr. Pierce's medicines. These are plainly printed on wrappers and attested under oath. There's no secrecy; an open publicity, square-deal policy is followed by the makers.

INVALIDS' HOTEL and SURGICAL INSTITUTE, BUFFALO, N. Y.

A model Sanitarium with every equipment and appliance and a complete Staff of experienced and skilled Specialists for the treatment of the most difficult cases of Chronic ailments whether requiring Medical or Surgical treatment for their cure. Send two stamps to above address for THE INVALIDS' GUIDE BOOK.

We have a profound desire to avoid all offense to the most delicate sensitiveness of modest women, for whom we entertain the most sincere respect and admiration. We shall not, therefore, particularize here concerning the symptoms and peculiar ailments incident to the sex for which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has for more than 40 years proven such a boon. We cannot, however, do a better service to the afflicted of the gentler sex than to refer them to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great family doctor book of 1000 pages, bound in cloth and given away gratis, or sent post-paid, on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps—to cover cost of wrapping and mailing only. All the delicate ailments and matters about which every woman, whether young or old, single or married, should know, but which their sense of delicacy makes them hesitate to ask even the family physician about, are made plain in this great book. Write for it. Address: WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Pres., 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

WOODWARD SPEAKS IN EAST ATLANTA

James G. Woodward, candidate for mayor, made an address on the issues of the campaign last night at the grove on the corner of Fair street and Moreland avenue, to the members of the East Atlanta Improvement Club. There were a number of visitors, including ladies, present.

He first addressed himself to the needs of that part of the city, declaring that all the promises made by the city before annexation of that territory should be kept and that the city should give all other improvements possible in the way of streets, water and sewers.

Discussing general campaign issues, he stated that he stood for the proper adjustment of taxation, an equitable assessment of property in all parts of the city, believed central property should pay its proportionate share, and that "the dollar of one man should be taxed the same as the dollar of another.

He said he favored the removal of the stockade, had once practically negotiated its sale, declared the crematory and the dumping grounds should not be located in residence sections, and referred to his record in office as councilman, alderman and mayor.

His engagements for the rest of the week follow: Tonight, eastern part of the Third ward, Pearl street and South Decatur street car line crossing; Wednesday night, upper end Eighth ward, Chastaintown; Thursday night, Tenth ward, near McCall's crossing; Friday night, Battle Hill; Saturday night, Edgewood.

Rally tonight for A. M. Corrie, the people's candidate for council first ward, 208 Peters St., near Walker. Music. Good program. Come!

JOHN LITTLE HEADS BROOKHAVEN CLUB

The Brookhaven Country club was formally organized, its constitution accepted and its officers for the ensuing year elected at a meting held last night in the Chamber of Commerce.

The names of the officers of the club follow: John D. Little, president; W. T. Gentry, first vice president; F. J. Paxon, second vice president; William F. Parkhurst, secretary, and Ivan E. Allen, treasurer.

JOHN D. LITTLE. ... Elected president of Brookhaven Country Club.

The following constitute the governing board: Charles I. Ryan, John Aldredge, John S. Cohen, W. R. C. Smith, J. Carroll Payne, William Lawson Peel, Walter P. Andrews, Eugene V. Haynes and Frank E. Callaway.

Beginning its career with 250 representative citizens, the Brookhaven club will be one of the most prominent social organizations in the city. Its president, Mr. Little, of the well-known law firm of Payne, Little & Jones, is a member of practically every other club in Atlanta, and is well chosen to head the new organization.

Feeling the need of a country club on the north side of the city, its originators have bought 150 acres of fine land on Peachtree road, two miles beyond Buckhead. Twenty-five acres of this land will be covered by a lake, while the rest of the property will be devoted to a golf course, tennis courts, gun range and other sporting features.

MAJOR WILLIAM KEAN DIES FROM PARALYSIS

Major William H. Kean, a native of Geneva, N. Y., but for the last five years a resident of Atlanta, died at his home, 61 Forrest avenue, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the effects of a sudden paralytic stroke on Saturday.

Apparently in the best of health, Major Kean left his home Saturday morning to go to town. As he returned Mrs. Kean noticed that he was suffering from an attack of some sort and soon discovered that her husband could not talk. The stroke grew rapidly worse, Major Kean losing consciousness and never again recovering it.

The deceased lived most of his life in Rochester, N. Y., and was connected with the New York Life Insurance Company. While in Atlanta he promoted various business enterprises. He was 65 years old.

Surviving him are his wife and two sons, Otis and William Kean, both in business in New York. The body will be taken to Geneva Thursday for interment.

"LITTLE RED BOOK" PLACED IN EVIDENCE

Chicago, October 10.—"The little red book," the personal expense record of Henry C. Ostermann, former president of the Ostermann Manufacturing Company, was presented in evidence today in the alleged conspiracy hearing against former Illinois Central officials in the municipal court. The book was tendered by counsel for the prosecution as its trump card in the car repair fraud case.

Henry C. Dolph, one time head of the Ostermann concern, presented the book as a witness for the prosecution.

The name of Ira G. Rawn, late president of the Monon road and former vice president of the Illinois Central, appears frequently. So do the names of Frank B. Harriman, former general manager of the Illinois Central, and John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper.

Dolph testified that Harriman was paid a monthly sum of $2,500 and that Rawn was given a flat payment of from $10 to $20 a car for each one repaired. In addition, said Dolph, Rawn, Harriman, Taylor, Joseph G. Buker and Ostermann received a special 2 per cent a month dividend from the Ostermann Manufacturing Company.

RINGLINGS' CIRCUS DRAWS BIG CROWDS

After a grand parade in the morning, the Ringling Brothers' circus, one of the largest and most complete shows on the road, gave two elaborate performances yesterday afternoon and evening to audiences which entirely filled the huge canvas erected on the Old Wheat show grounds.

The first display was a panoramic view of ancient Egyptian life, animals and men dressed in the costumes of the time of Cleopartra, passing slowly around the outside track.

Three herds of elephants, one for each ring, gave an exhibition of intelligence and marvelous training that delighted the entire audience. The equestrians were among the best that have been seen here, the feats new and thrilling and the horses beautiful in style and form. There were three bands of these, whites, browns and duns. The acrobatic work was of a high order.

A very beautiful act was that in which flocks of homing pigeons, loosened from every point in the circumference of the tent, flew with ribbons to a basket hung near the tent top, creating a spectacle of vari-colored streamers.

ATTACKS EX-OFFICER AND GETS BROKEN JAW

John Humphries, 45 years old, a former saloonist, who lives at 18 Culver street, received a broken jaw bone last night when he attempted to attack G. Howard Austin, an ex-policeman, with an open knife.

Austin is now a plumber and went to contract a job with Humphries in his home. According to Austin the latter was drinking and Austin was talking with him only a few minutes before Humphries picked up a pistol and struck him in the face with it.

Austin left the house in a hurry. Humphries picked up a big knife and ran after him. When he had secured a considerable lead by running over a block, Austin stopped, picked up a big rock, and sent it crashing against Humphries' jaw.

Humphries was placed under arrest by Call Officers Webb and Hood, who sent him to the Grady hospital for surgical attention. He is now a patient at that institution.

On Sunday night Humphries emptied his revolver at W. E. Nebell, a neighbor who lives on Ella street, according to the police, when Nebell came over and tried to guide him safely through the spree. None of the shots took effect.

The police have entered two serious charges against Humphries.

CHAMBER OPENS WAR ON BOLL WEEVIL TODAY

At the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon at 1 o'clock a meeting will be held by the fifty chairmen of the committees of that oganization to fire the first shot in a war on the boll weevil. It is the purpose of the campaign to show the farmers of Georgia how to get ahead of the pest before it reaches the state.

The first move of the campaign will be the corn show to be held by the Chamber of Commerce at the Auditorium-Armory, November 23-25. The slogan now of the Chamber of Commerce is "Intensive and diversified farming."

Jessie Elizabeth Walker.

Jessie, the 10-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. G. Walker, died yesterday of diphtheria at the residence, 459 East Georgia avenue. The funeral will be held in West View cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

GOOD WEATHER IS HERE AGAIN

After lingering on the western coast during several days in which Atlanta experienced most disagreeable rain, the good weather promised several days ago by the weather man, has arrived, and it is here for several days, the forecaster says.

Monday was an almost perfect fall day, neither too cool nor too warm, but delightfully sunshiny and pleasant. The days are getting steadily cooler, the weather man says, and while he cannot predict just when the first severe cold will come, the weather is slowly sliding toward a wintry coolness.

TOO MUCH FOR THE GOPHER.

Slight rains were reported Monday from various coastal stations, but inland areas are experiencing fair weather.

The Gopher is a dejected being.

"Where is there a man," he asked his friend, "who could go through two such strenuous days as the Roosevelt day on Saturday and the Circus day on Monday, and feel fit for a bull fight on Tuesday? Not me. I quit right here, and am going home for a quiet all-night snooze. See you Wednesday."

For pure, sweet and wholesome Flour, ask for the K K K.

Mrs. Nancie J. Bradley.

Mrs. Nancie J. Bradley, aged 28 years, died at the residence, 109 Estoria street late Saturday night. The funeral will be held in the residence at 11 o'clock this morning.

box as a prize for the county which has the best stretch of road on the tour. These boxes are very useful devices and are great labor savers. This is the second prize offered by road machinery manufacturers, and shows how the Georgia tour has attracted attention all over the country.

Nearly every hotel on the route has quoted rates for the tour, and they average, for supper, breakfast and room with bath, $2.50 per person, except in the larger cities.

Cities Will Help Out.

In practically every city the authorities have granted permission for the tourists to park their cars in front of the hotels at night, and the cities will have an officer to guard them.

The mayors and city officials are generally deeply interested in the success of the tour, and are anxious to make the visit of the tourists as pleasant as possible.

Mayor Rowe, of Athens; Mayor Moore, of Macon; Mayor Tift, of Albany; Mayor Felder, of Americus; Mayor Cochran, of Barnesville; Mayor MacIntyre, of Thomasville; Mayor Roberts, of Valdosta; Mayor Cox, of Waycross; Mayor Groover, of Millen; Mayor Barksdale, of Washington, have all assured the officials of the tour that they will cooperate heartily.

Route Book Out Soon.

The copy for the route book is in the printers' hands, and the booklet will be issued and a copy forwarded to every entrant this week.

The book gives a complete log of the road from Atlanta to Valdosta. Some changes have been made in the route between Valdosta and Savannah since the road was measured and the data obtained by the Lozier on that link is not available. The counties, however, have promised to place signs at the forks and crossroads.

The road is marked from Savannah to Augusta, and from Augusta to Atlanta it is easy to follow the route with the directions given in the book.

Come On With Entries.

Chairman Frank Weldon said Monday:

"Send in the entries. The time is getting short and there are many details to handle. There are many people who are considering the question of going on the tour and I hope they will reach a conclusion in the next day or two. The weather has cleared and it will probably be fine from now until toward the last of the month. October averages only four rainy days, and we have had two of them. The other two usually come just the last week in the month. The roads will be splendid by next week. The counties are working hard on their links to get them in good shape, and it is well worth their while to make them as smooth as possible, because some very valuable prizes will be announced in a day or so which will interest not only the road officials, but everybody in the counties traversed by the route.

Offer Free Advertising.

"Five of the largest newspapers in the state have tendered nearly two pages of advertising apiece, to be offered for write-ups, advertising the counties which win the road prizes. This publicity would cost hundreds of dollars if purchased at the regular rates. There will be a prize for the county which has done the most permanent work on the route this year, and other prizes for the best roads."

Every Possible Aid.

Mayor J. T. Moore, of Macon, writes to Chairman Frank Weldon:

"The authorities of the city of Macon will render every possible aid to the Good Roads Automobile Tour. The cars may be parked in the streets if the owners desire."

Secretary W. C. Boykin, of the Augusta chamber of commerce, writes that President Stafford, of that organization, is ill, but the question of entering a car will be taken up at a meeting of the directors this afternoon.

Secretary C. B. Woodruff, of the Columbus board of trade, writes: "We have been in communication with some of our automobilists and it is likely there will be one or more cars entered from here for the tour. They will communicate direct with you in regard to the matter. We wish you much success in the undertaking."

Men's Fall Suits Brisk and New

October is the interim for saying goodbye to summer, and for the reception of the brisk newness that winter brings.

To MUSE'S it brings the newness that is original and authentic in men's suits.

When you have come to see for yourself, you will recognize this.

First—because the fabrics are the best products of manufacturers who have guarded their textile traditions for generations.

Next—they are made and managed by hands that know nothing less than expert workmanship.

Then—they come here because they are worthy to come here.

For like reason, the great distribution of them will be exhilarating both to purchasers, and to ourselves.

The display covers all new fabrics, new colors and new models, at a price range of mates of the number of persons killed range from 75 to 400 tonight. Several conservative men of business and authority place the deaths at more than 100. But the greater concern for the present is the rescue of the helpless and the relief of thousands of homeless men, women and children.

Stories of wild animals fleeing for safety side by side with human beings, their natural hostility and fear quenched by the horror of their situation, came in today, showing the desperateness of the situation. Tales also came of mothers burned to death with their babies on the breast, and strong men calcined while endeavoring to shield their children.

"It's Hell Down There."

"It's hell down there!" said Engineer Smith, of the Duluth express today when a reporter swung into the cab after the train passed the fire zone.

His train took many refugees from the scene of the conflagration to Winnipeg.

"If the fire keeps on the way it is going, there will be mighty little left of the population of that part of Minnesota," he added.

"The flames have quieted down a little, but it only needs a puff of wind and they will start up again as bad as ever.

"Everything is wiped out. From the engine it looked as though every timber mill in the country had been burned, except that of the Shevlin-Matthieu Company, which is safe. All the lumber in the yards, however, was burned. We passed through part of the burned territory in the night and the small red flames from the smouldering mass of logs looked like a real picture of the inferno through the clouds of smoke which reeled across the path of the engine.

"All the ties of the road have been charred, and the country is level with the tracks."

Bodies found along the railway track 3 miles west of Baudette were brought here today. There was not a particle of clothing left on any of them, save parts of shoes. The bodies had the appearance of having been baked in a red-hot oven.

Leaped Into River.

Many settlers got into the Rapid river and saved themselves by wading in the water, although their faces were blistered by the heat.

The bridge which went down at Winter river and carried a Canadian Northern freight train with it, spilled wheat across the river bed and completely dammed the river. The refugees in the caboose had a narraw escape.

Along the Canadian Northern track on the river side were great piles of ties, which were burning and every minute those in the caboose expected to be roasted alive.

They lay down on the floor to keep from smothering, occasionally some of the men would crawl out on their stomachs and scraped sand on the burning ties to keep the flames from the caboose.

Practically all the live stock in the country has perished. So intense was the heat in the streets that horses died while hitched to telephone poles.

Wild Animals Raced Wildly.

Wild animals raced wildly about the edge of the fire and then contrary to their habits turned and plunged in the deep and wide Rainy river and swam across to Canada and safety. They followed the human flight, and cattle likewise, released by their owners at the approach of flames, fled to safety. Accompanying the horses were hundreds of deer, caribou and moose and in truth the cattle lay down with the bears, wild cats and timber wolves and with no danger from them. They were all flying from a common enemy.

Never probably in the histary of this country was there ever such a herd of wild animals as passed before the eyes of human refugees. Not one of them was shot or molested.

the Episcopalian faith might continue the Jewish rites, festivals and ceremonies of their forefathers as historical and racial traditions, providing they do it as a matter of morality or for sanitary reasons, but not as a matter of religion.

Missionary Canon Changed.

Marked changes in the missionary canon concerning the work of the board of domestic and foreign missions was proposed in the house of deputies by George Wharton Pepper, of Philadelphia. Instead of 45 members of the board being elected in convention, the change calls for 21 to be elected in convention, 24 by missionary councils.

Insteady of the board of missions being directed by the general secretary and the president in which office the latter being the presiding bishop, it is proposed that it be conducted by a president to be elected and four secretaries.

A resolution was also offered in the house of deputies that recognition of the fact that the Episcopal church is part of the Holy Catholic church be put on the title page of the book of common prayer. Both of the resolutions will be taken up for final settlement later.

Rev. Jos. D. Carry, of Saratoga, introduced a resolution asking for a commission to arrange for the celebration in 1911 of the three hundredth anniversary of the first publication of the King James version of the Bible.

Seeking Next Convention.

In a memorial to the house of deputies, Atlantic City asked for the next convention, which will take place three years hence. New York city is also reported as desiring the convention.

Shortly before adjourning, the house of bishops passed the resolution directing that the territory of the diocese of Pittsburg be cut up into two dioceses. This action was taken earlier in the day by the house of deputies.

No longer will Episcopalians in their prayers on Good Friday refer to "Jews, Turks, infidels and heretics." A resolution to alter the phrase to read, "Those who are without the true faith," was introduced a few days ago in the Episcopal convention and received a favorable vote today. There will have to be further technical legislation before the change becomes effective, but final passage is assured.

BUTTERLESS FRUIT CAKE.

Many housewives say it is impossible to make a good fruit cake without butter. The recipe below will give you as rich, flavory a fruit cake as you ever tasted; yet there is no butter in it:

Mix four cups sifted pastry flour, one level teaspoon soda, two level teaspoons mixed spices (except cloves), one-fourth level teaspoon salt and two cups seeded and quartered raisins. Add also one-half cup nuts chopped fine, if you like. Blend one-half cup Cottolene with one cup brown sugar and one cup white sugar, add one cup molasses, one cup milk and then the flour mixture. Beat well and bake in two pans.

ATLANTA, GA., October 11, 1910.

See Georgia in the All-Around-the-State Tour.

A fiddle bridge for the crimson chasm in Tennessee politics.

People haunted by the fear of earthquakes didn't linger to get the Teddy grip.

They are talking of it as if Mr. Bryan hasn't as much right to bolt as he has to run forever.

Mayor Gaynor prefers three cheers for duty well done now, than a dusty race for the chair honors of 1912.

The Houston Post's latest blow at Bryan is a dark conspiracy to bar the dollar dinner from democratic Texas.

He didn't consider his southern trip in a strenuous light, as he only made a hundred or more speeches.

The Mem his Ne -Scimitar speaks of "honest politicians in St. Louis," but doesn't state the price of admission.

In a word, it's the people of the country as one great family, and Roosevelt to write the rules of conduct.

China's senators will need "coaching." Now is the time to write for sample copies of our Congressional Record.

We didn't get a glimpse of Sunny Jim Sherman. Perhaps he is in retirement; writing the obituary of the Old Guard.

The days of the Black Hand are numbered. Bailey, of The Houston Post, has promised to "amputate it to the armpits."

And the Colonel always shares the crowd's enthusiasm for "Dixie" by the band, which is now as National as Teddy himself.

A king on the run is a most undignified figure—especially if he has to dodge so that he can't keep his crown on straight.

Funny how Spain, in an effort to divert attention from her own troubles, is doing strenuous work to settle those of Portugal.

Next will come the aeroplane on the houseboat order, which will be easy—at least to the people who have had to live high on hot air.

Little of the big stick in his Georgia speeches, but he intimated that he had it handy, and the knotted end is as dangerous as ever.

Hall Caine was fined five shillings recently for keeping a dog without a license. Has genius no privileges in this cold, unfeeling world?

Vice President Sherman is booked for a series of political speeches; so, after all, the sunny-tempered citizen doesn't know when he's whipped.

The fine weather came "a day after the fair," but we are the more grateful for such favors from the bureau because they are entirely unexpected.

No hurricanes followed Roosevelt, and his time was too limited to create the kind that count. Even when he stood pat on a proposition the earth didn't tremble.

A Chicago preacher has captured the limelight by running for the legislature on the strange platform of the Ten Commandments. If he wins out, there will be great sympathy for the Ten Commandments which, however, should not be known by the legislative company they'll have to keep.

TO TOWNS ON THE ROUTE.

Every town, large or small, on the 950-mile right-of-way of the All-Around-Georgia Good Roads Automobile Tour, owes its people the duty of representation by one or more entrants.

Already the forty-two entries come from every section of Georgia, and stand for every class of citizenry.

So that when the good roads cavalcade circles the state, beginning with October 17, Georgians from every walk of life will be keenly inspecting every town and city through which the tour passes—making an estimate, as they go, of the enterprise of each individual community.

NO TOWN NEGOTIATED BY THE TOURISTS WILL CARE TO WRITE ITSELF AS LACKING IN THE INITIATIVE ESSENTIAL TO HAVING ONE OR MORE REPRESENTATIVES IN THE PROCESSION.

Every community the 950-mile oval touches boasts many good roads enthusiasts and several automobiles. Logically, each one of these towns, whether in the large or small class, should be represented in the tour in a manner commensurate with its commercial importance and its receptivity to the importance of the cause of decent highways.

This circumnavigation of Georgia is to be a PUBLICITY caravan as well as an ocular demonstration in favor of good roads.

The county that has excellent highways and that presents all the aspects of prosperity will receive state-wide ADVERTISEMENT.

And the counties and towns that are represented on the tour by one or more entrants will likewise receive state-wide ADVERTISEMENT for alertness and community-spirit.

It was with this idea in mind that the conditions and qualifications were made so reasonable as to encourage the smallest, as well as the largest, cars, and to make the itinerary equally attractive for the amateur and the veteran.

Many commercial bodies in the smaller towns have already seen their opportunity, and have officially entered one or more machines.

There is no reason why every town situated on the right-of-way should not follow their example.

And this is not to mention the individual citizens with cars, who will want to see to it that their communities figure in this co-operative movement for boosting Georgia.

The entries close next Saturday.

By that time, each one of the towns and cities to be visited by the 'Round-Georgia tourists should have sent in several entrants!

THE "ATLANTA SPIRIT" WEATHER-PROOF.

The visit of former President Roosevelt to Atlanta was punctuated by a remarkable illustration of the "Atlanta Spirit."

That dynamic force exhibited itself as proof against weather, even that brand of particularly melancholy weather that goes with torrential rains.

For several hours before the strenuous one made his debut upon the local stage, the weather man did his best to even up matters in the golden-rod, cocklebur and gopher controversy by laying the foundation for a reception that was moisture, plus.

From the moment the conqueror of the "old guard" landed at the Terminal, until he set foot on the step of his private car late that evening, some one of a dozen variegated patterns of rain was sluicing from the firmament.

Did it discourage the crowds? Not perceptibly! Did it wilt their enthusiasm? Not even microscopically!

Cheers and exuberance were the order of the day, and although the bunting hung limp and dejected and even the brass bands complained slightly of catarrh, the welcome of the colonel was none the less noisy and spontaneous.

Which is only another way of saying that Jupiter Pluvius isn't in it with the "Atlanta Spirit," especially when the first citizen of the world heads the "insurgents."

DISAPPEARING MONARCHY.

Commenting on the downfall of the Braganza dynasty in Portugal, and on the general uneasiness throughout Europe, The Springfield (Mass.) Republican declares that "monarchy will ultimately disappear from the earth."

It is well that the statement was qualified by the use of the word "ultimately." For while the trend throughout the world is toward popular government, it is impossible to set any time in the future for the complete disappearance of kings and kingcraft.

This much is true, however, and significant: That wherever monarchy rules, in whatever form, the nominal head of the state is called upon increasingly to conform to democratic ideas and ideals.

For instance, the late King Edward of England owed his popular and political strength, at home and abroad, to the fact that he rarely pursued a line of conduct that might be construed as enforcing a "divine prerogative." He was keen enough to sense the public drift, and to align himself with it, and perceptive enough not to get out of line with the times by imposing any of the actualities of autocracy.

The same condition is notable in Germany. Twice within recent years the kaiser, Rooseveltian in his impetuosity and in his exaltation of the personal pronoun, has been "called down" by popular mandate and more or less coerced into policies that bore close resemblance to democratic ideals.

It is even conceivable that were a less strong man than William at the head of the German government, the royalists would have a difficult time perpetuating the principle of rulership by heredity.

In Russia the czar has been compelled to give heed to the popular voice. The concession represented in the duma is a considerable one, and it is one of the probabilities that within a very few years this body will become actually, rather than nominally, representative of the people.

The leaven has even penetrated to Turkey, where the new sultan is more a titular representative of majority sentiment than an embodiment of the old absolutism.

And so the tale goes on, embracing even the smaller states and principalities which are not immune from the rising tide of democratic ideals.

As to when monarchy and its trappings will disappear from the earth—that is a different matter. In many of the European nations reverence for the institution of royalty is bred in the blood of the humblest inhabitant. But it is certain as the twentieth century gathers age, that the name and meaning of monarchy will partake more of shadow and less of substance.

Democratic government has not been the impeccable ideal the forefathers forecasted for it; no government administered by human beings could attain that perfection. But its fundamental principles are to comprise civilization's permanent governing factor, regardless of temporary backsets and recessions.

FOREST FIRES AS A CONGRESSIONAL ISSUE.

Forest fires promise to be an issue in congress this winter. Any catastrophe that takes such enormous toll of life as that reported from the recent Minnesota conflagrations, and those that occurred in the farther west, will not be allowed to escape the attention of the country's lawmakers.

It is likely, too, that the controversy surrounding the threshing out of the matter will be as warm in its way as the fires.

Gifford Pinchot charges that the destruction of towns, lives and forest lands in the Coeur d'Alene district was largely preventable. He declares that congress has, for several sessions, been asked for sufficient appropriations to install such forest patrols and other protective measures as would minimize, if not prevent, disastrous blazes.

Immediately following the outbreak of the large fires in the northwest, he asserted that these measures had been systematically defeated by a group of western statesmen—among whom was Senator Heyburn, of Idaho—a rather unpleasant imputation, in view of the aftermath.

Regardless of locating the responsibility for the recent fires, there is no question that it is the duty of congress to enact such measures as will forestall a recurrence.

The tragic events of the current autumn will not have been without benefit if they lead to a sound forest policy backed up by ample congressional authority.

The Critical Youngster.

They tell this story on John Fox, Jr., the novelist. He stayed overnight in a cabin in the Kentucky mountains. Books by southern authors are coming from the press every little while. If the late Gordon Coogler were with us he would change his verdict, which was as follows:

"The south doesn't patronize
Books—to be sure;
She never was much given
To Lit-er-a-ture."

Gossip at the Capitol

The Georgia Railway and Electric Company has made application to the railroad commission for permission to discontinue its freight service to Buckhead, and the commission has set Wednesday, October 12, for a hearing on the matter.

Secretary of State Philip Cook and his office force were busily at work yesterday consolidating the returns of the recent state election. Several counties have not yet reported, so the complete consolidated figures are not yet available.

Railroad Commissioners Hillyer and Candler were in Luella yesterday, having gone down to inspect the depot facilities at that place.

A Rainbow-Garland.

(To Robert Loveman.)

For thy brow a rainbow-garland I'll 'twine;
Orange and bay, culled in dreamy hours;
Bright-hued azaleas color and shine—
Enhancing the snowy gardenia flowers;
Carnations, heliotrope, all dew-wet;
Of silvered freesia, a shimmering spray;
Lilies-of-the-valley and mignonette—
And early blooming white lilacs of May!
Radiant roses—such as poets love,
And jasmine, with velvet petalled hearts's-ease
To soften Life's twilight all inter-wove—
Then a color-spectrum of gray sweet peas!
But, brightest in this rainbow-garland sweet,
Fit emblem for the glowing Fire-divine—
And for thy poetic eloquence meet—
Last "Rosemary for Remembrance" I'll 'twine.

SPEAKING TO YOUNG LADY GETS HAFFEN IN TROUBLE

Printer Is Fined $25.75 on Complaint of Miss Laura Weldon.

Michael Haffen, a printer, was fined $25.75 by Judge Nash R. Broyles in the police court yesterday afternoon on a charge brought by Miss Laura Weldon, of 108 Trinity avenue.

Miss Weldon was walking down Central avenue Saturday night with a friend, Miss Elrene Moore, when, according to her statement, Haffen tried to make her acquaintance. When she rebuked him, the young girl stated that Haffen followed after them.

The father of Miss Weldon, an elderly man with a flowing beard, as soon as heard his daughter's story, ran out, caught Haffen and held him until the police arrived.

"He had one of those laughing jags when we arrested him, your honor," stated Call Officer Charles Brannen.

"It's getting so now that a young girl can't go out on the streets alone without being insulted," stated Miss Weldon. Haffen's lawyer objected to this remark.

Haffen stated that he spoke to the young lady, thinking that she worked in the printing office with him, but denied that he tried to follow her home.

MISSIONARIES TAKE PLACE OF PRISONERS

While the Jailbirds Flee---The Mission Workers Taken Unawares.

Santa Anna, Cal., October 10.—Taken unawares at the close of religious services in the jail here yesterday, Sheriff Lacy and Miss Christian Kerl, a missionary, were thrown into a cell by two prisoners, one an alleged murderer and the other held on a forgery charge, and held for nearly an hour, while the captors escaped. The fugitives, Rosario Sians and Alenno Norais, are being pursued by a posse. Both are armed with rifles taken from the sheriff's office, and a battle is expected before they are recaptured.

NEGRO BOY SNEAK THIEF CHASED BY SCHOOL BOYS

Detected by Miss Ollie Mae Osborne, the Thief Is "Run to Earth."

A negro boy who had boldly walked into the front door of the home of J. P. Osborne, 49 West Peachtree place, and stole a handbag, was dragged from under a vacant house four blocks away at 20 East Pine street, five minutes later yesterday afternoon by Call Officers Hood and S. J. Roberts.

As the negro took the handbag from a table in the drawing room, the owner, Miss Ollie Mae Osborne, saw him. She called out to her father, and as the negro dashed out the front door Mr. Osborne gave chase.

Seventy-five or more school boys joined Mr. Osborne in the pursuit, yelling, "Stop, thief," as they ran, and the frightened negro sought refuge under the vacant house on Pine street. His pursuers had surrounded the house when the officers arrived.

While running from the scene of the theft, the negro dropped the handbag, and it was carried back by Mr. Osborne. Miss Osborne is a teacher in the Calhoun Street school, and had been home from her duties only a few minutes when the theft occurred.

LITTLE HEADWAY MADE BY AVIATOR ELY

Only 19 Miles Covered in New-York-to-Chicago Flight.

Indiana Harbor, Ind., October 10.—Eugene Ely, the aviator, alighted in a field 2 miles south of here late this afternoon after having covered but 19 miles of his proposed Chicago-New York flight.

Ely announced that he would not attempt to resume his flight until tomorrow after he had walked into town and telephoned for assistance. He said his engines were working badly and that the aeroplane had been damaged in making the descent.

CONSERVATION OF CHILDREN OBJECT OF BERRY SCHOOL

By John Corrigan, Jr.

"Saturday, October 8, 1910"—

Is a red letter date that will be remembered at Miss Martha Berry's school in Rome, Floyd county, Ga., as long as the boy and girl students remember their youth.

It marks the coming of Christmas, Easter, the comet, the great white father, a famous hunter, faunal naturalist, and several other impressive and awe-inspiring things to the little school in the flatwoods of north Georgia.

But the boys and girls who saw and heard the world-famous visitors, were not a wee little bit confused nor embarrassed. They bore themselves like little princes and princesses, but underneath blue overalls and gingham dresses there was many a heart going pit-a-pat like it would burst.

They sang, "Has Anybody Here Seen Teddy?" and another inspiring refrain entitled, "The Jungle King," but they were friendly without being forward, and respectful without lowering themselves.

Children Will Be Heard From.

There is many a sturdy young man and young girl growing into usefulness under the tutelage of the Berry school, who will be heard from later on. If the money to complete their education is forthcoming—and it will mean many, many a hard struggle—they will not only be sturdy and self-reliant citizens, but educated and successful farmers and merchants and home-builders.

Despite the great work being done for the boys, I seriously doubt whether a greater work is not being done for the girls. Dr. John E. White, of Atlanta, in urging support of the Agnes Scott college, made a remark that fits this case. "Educate a boy, and you have an educated citizen," he said. "Educate a girl, and you have an educated family. The arithmetic of the proposition is on the side of the girls' schools." Of course the education of the boys is not to be held up for a little minute; but the school for girls instituted by Miss Berry a year ago is a work that can not afford to be neglected, but must continue to expand.

In considering the number of highly-endowed, splendidly-equipped industrial schools for the negro boys and girls of the south, it is nothing short of a crime for the south to neglect to provide for her white children.

Miss Berry thought so, and from a Sunday school where she gave the little boys a stick of candy every Sunday to bribe them to come, has grown an institution of learning that is a pride to Georgia. She is actively engaged in conservation, for she has taken the boys and girls who were growing up like weeds in the flatwoods of Floyd and developed them into good citizens. Any system of conservation which takes care of trees and lets men go to seed, is a bad system.

For Those Without a Chance.

Many millions of men have wept over the little story of "A Man Without a Country." The boy without a chance is as much an object of pity and solicitude. There are tens of thousands of such now in the mountains and the rural districts of the south.

They are splendid boys. Some of their grandfathers fought at King's mountain, and others at Appomattox. The raw material is there for development, and its working is an invitation to men who love their fellows and who wish big returns on their investments.

The industrial school founded by Miss Berry in 1902 with five pupils has become an institution numbering 200 boy pupils and 35 girls. It is not an institution to make money, but to turn the inept and hopeless into the educated and aggressive citizen. Miss Barry, its director, gave up an inviting social life to devote her energies to social service. From a financial standpoint she did not need to work. From the moral and philanthropic standpoint, she could not possibly escape what she is doing. She was just built that way.

The school runs 365 days—so do the expenses. The pupils have here their life and work and recreation—all. No city children are admitted; they have schools of their own. No sons of rich men are taken; they would not find it congenial. This is a school for struggling boys and girls, of poor and sometimes densely ignorant parents, to whom life in the open country means nothing but privation and loneliness and grinding poverty. It means something more than that at the Berry school. Here are taught lessons of industry and patriotism and home-building.

Following are the directors of the school who are aiding in raising the funds to keep the wheels moving, and the complicated machinery grinding away at its work of turning out good citizens:

JAM OF ELEVENTH-HOUR MEN TRYING TO PAY WATER BILLS

The jam at the city hall yesterday afternoon when hundreds of people tried to pay their water bills at the same time was something simply terrific. Men, women, and children, white and black, all crowded into the hallway until there was no room to move and not a good square inch in which to breathe.

Three or four women came near fainting and two had to be led out to fresh air. One old man claimed he had his pocket picked, and one little boy was run over and knocked down and sustained severe bruises.

Nobody was to blame unless it was the people themselves for putting off the paying of water bills until the last hours of the last day. The officials did their very best and waited on those present as rapidly as possible. The clerks in the waterworks office kept a constant stream of bills flowing into the tax collector's office where the men took in money and handed out receipts and change as fast as human minds and human hands could manipulate.

The hall was such a jammed mass of human beings that the people got in one another's way and this retarded the work to a considerable extent, for when a clerk called out a street and number the person waiting to pay that particular bill took several minutes pushing through the crowd.

As the men, women and children paid their bills and shoved their way into the streets they were perspiring and looked as they had passed through a storm.

This state of affairs went on for three or four hours.

No remedy can be suggested unless the people pay their water bills a few days ahead so they will not all congest on one day However, the city government will soon move into the new city hall where the old postoffice now is, and then the waterworks office can be arranged to take care of such a rush as was witnessed Monday afternoon.

'PRINCESS SONIA," BEAUTY OF HORSE SHOWS, IS DEAD

"Princess Sonia," the beautiful combination horse of Mrs. Richard Tasker Lowndes, of Danville, Ky., died in Springfield, Ill., last week, thus depriving the southern horse show circuit of one of the finest and most admired animals.

"Princess Sonia" was one of the most applauded horses at Atlanta's last show, and shared honors with "Edna Mae," Mrs. Lowndes' champion saddle horse.

In writing to an Atlanta friend about her beloved dead pet, Mrs. Lowndes declares:

"She was so brave and fought for life, standing for twelve hours after no pulse could be felt. All that could be done for a human being was done for her. Her suffering was intense, and I cannot bear to think that she, who had never given me anything but pleasure, died away from me."

In Chicago, Madison Square Garden and throughout the southern shows, "Princess Sonia" had won her laurels.

WHY I AM FOR COURTLAND WINN

—W. O. Jones

I am for Courtland S. Winn for mayor because I know him to be by far the best candidate in the race for mayor from every viewpoint. He is thoroughly familiar with all city affairs; the people know his character and know him to be sober, honest, upright and clean. We do not want a man for mayor, no matter if he may possess a few of the requisites for a chief executive, if there is a possibility of his disgracing the city. The people of Greater Atlanta just cannot at this particular time in her history afford to take any more chances or risks. With millions of the people's money to be expended, we want a man who will sit steady at the helm through fair weather and through storm. We all want to feel that the good old ship is being guided by a steady hand, and that there will not be any letting go or any slips.

I have known Courtland Winn for years, and I, like every man who knows him, know beyond any shadow of a doubt that he is a man whose character is pure and whose name is a synonym for all the good attributes that go to make up a good man. I cannot for the life of me see how any voter can hesitate or falter in this mayoralty campaign when such a man as Courtland Winn has been induced to offer for the office. Atlanta should congratulate herself, and her people should be proud, that such a man as Courtland Winn can be found who is willing to serve as chief executive.

W. O. JONES.

BILL BARLOW ANSWERS SUMMONS OF DEATH

He Was Editor of "Sagebrush Philosophy" and an Apostle of "Red Corpuscle."

Douglas, Wyo., October 10.—H. G. (Bill) Barlow, editor of Sagebrush Philosophy, and an apostle of the "Red Corpuscle Push," died here last night following a sudden attack of heart disease.

Barlow, who was 50 years old, was city editor of The Laramie Boomerang, when that sheet was famous under Bill Nye. When Nye left The Boomerang, Barlow succeeded him as editor.

Barlow began to attract attention about fifteen years ago, when he commenced the publication of "Sagebrush Philosophy," a magazine abounding in quaint humor and pithy sayings.

ENTIRE CAROLINA TOWN BOUGHT BY SYNDICATE

Robbinsville, N. C., a Hamlet of 300 People, Becomes a Lumbering Community.

Asheville, N. C., October 10.—The Whiting Lumber Company, backed by a wealthy English syndicate, has purchased the entire town of Robbinsville, N. C., with the exception of the courthouse site, two church properties and three private lots.

Robbinsville is a town of about 300 inhabitants, in Graham county, North Carolina.

The company, it is understood, proposes to develop valuable timber properties which it owns adjacent to Robbinsville, and may make a manufacturing town there. It is said it will spend $3,000,00 in development processes. The company's main offices are in Philadelphia.

Preach to Deaf Mutes.—Rev. J. W. Michaels, evangelist to the deaf mutes of the Southern Bapist Convention, will preach Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church. All deaf mutes and their friends are invited to attend this service.

Boy Hit by Trolley Car.—Harry Langford, 5 years old, was struck by a trolley car at Marietta street and Ponders avenue yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and taken to his father's home at 251 Means street, suffering with slight injuries.

Grant-West.—Miss Maud E. Grant and Dr. George West were quietly married at 9:30 o'clock last night at the home of the bride's parents, 117 Davis street, Rev. A. C. Ward performing the ceremony. The groom is a popular young physician of Dawnsonville, Ga.

Denial of Crap Game.—The five young men who were arrested at 2 o'clock Sunday morning in Bert Waite's stable by county police on the charge of having indulged in a "crap" game absolutely deny that they were playing craps. They say they had not been gambling.

Goree Heads Junior Class.—The junior class of Georgia Tech held its annual election of officers yesterday, resulting in the election of the following officers: C. P. Goree, president, Atlanta, Ga.; W. F. Osborne, vice president, Fitzgerald, Ga.; J. T. Peacock, Jr., secretary and treasurer, Madison, Ga.; J. W. Spears, historian, Brunswick, Ga.; P. Thompson, football manager, Atlanta, Ga.

Old Landmark Torn Down.—An old landmark of Atlanta, the Arlington Hotel, at the corner of Marietta and Cone streets, is being torn down to aid in improving Greater Atlanta. Work of razing the building was started Saturday by "Lee, the house-wrecker." As soon as this is completed a new concrete structure will be erected on the spot by the Hayden estate. The building will be three stories high, and have a basement and loft. It will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000.

Meet Is Sanctioned.

Pensacola, Fla., October 10.—The management of the automobile races which will be held here in November today received assurance that the meet will be sanctioned by the American Automobile Association. This assures the racing here of Barney Oldfield and a Marmon team, as the sanctioning of the meet is all that has been holding back the deal.

Remember Baby's Birthday

It doesn't take much to give a lot of pleasure and happiness to the little tots. If you can't afford to let your children have birthday parties and give them some nice remembrance, too, let the party go, but be certain to give them something to commemorate the occasion.

A set of pins are serviceable; so are knives, forks, spoons, cups, pap and comb and brush sets. Many parents make it a point to buy baby a spoon on each birthday until a dozen have been secured.

We carry a big line of baby goods in Sterling silver, such as food pushers, bib holders, bent-handle spoons, rattles, teething rings, nursery pins, talcum jars, porridge sets, etc.

We have picture frames in Sterling silver from 50 cents to $36.00 each.

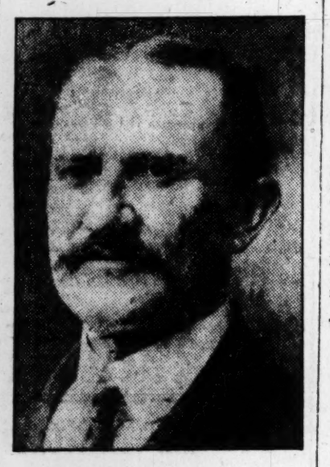

Visit our two stores for gifts of any kind. Even the young folks will know you wanted them to have the best if your remembrance comes from us.

MANAGER PERRY COMES TO SUCCEED ELRRIDGE

Shuberts Send a New Man to Manage the Grand Theater.

Manager David Eldridge, of the Grand theater, has resigned his position in Atlanta and goes back to New York soon to confer with the Shuberts there. In his place Eugene Perry, of Boston, comes as manager.

Mr. Eldridge has been in poor health ever since his arrival in this city. Finally deciding that he could not get better here, he determined to return east. He communicated with the Shuberts, and they consented to relieve him, instructing him to report to New York, where he would be given the pick of open positions.

Mr. Perry has been manager of the Shubert house in Atlantic City. At present he is in Macon, but is expected to arrive in Atlanta today and will take charge at once.

JOSEPH W. HILL LEAVES FOR DIRECTORY MEETING

Joseph W. Hill, president and manager of the Atlanta City Directory, left on Monday for Louisville to attend the twelfth annual convention of the Association of American Directory Publishers, which represents all America.

Mr. Hill is the member of that association for Atlanta. The purpose of this association is to standardize the information published in all of the directories of North America, and to improve the quality thereof, as well as to prevent itinerant and irresponsible persons from publishing worthless directories.

SNUG SUM OF $124.90 FOR ONE BALE COTTON

Upson Takes the Record From Baldwin --- Thomaston a Splendid Market.

Thomaston, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—The press notices sent out from Milledgeville the other day to the effect that the most valuable bale of cotton in the state up to date had just been marketed by a Baldwin county negro at a price of $121.25, is misleading. A bale was marketed in Thomaston on August 26 which brought a total of $124.90. It was sold by J. T. Adams, of Taylor county, and bought by Pruitt & Murray, of Thomaston. The seed were bought by Job Stewart, of this city.

Thomaston has one of the best cotton markets in the state for the farmers. The buyers here have been paying above the market in surrounding towns all the fall.

HOWLETT JOYNER'S BODY HAS NOT BEEN FOUND

Chattahoochee River Has Been Dragged for Many Hundred Yards.

At a late hour yesterday evening the body of Howlett Joyner, who was drowned in the Chattahoochee river Sunday morning, had not been found. The search is still being kept up, and the river has been dragged for many hundred yards near the ferry where the accident occurred.

The mule and buggy which was occupied by Mr. Joyner and Jack O'Meara was found in the river not far from the ferry.

It is now believed that Mr. Joyner, when the river bank was reached at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, drove straight ahead, thinking the ferry flat was at the landing, and did not know that the flat was on the other side of the river until the team was in deep water.

Auto Contest Transferred to Georgia City.

Contest Committee of the Auto Club of America Decides on Savannah --- Great Race Will Probably Be Run on November 12.

New York, October 10.—The contest committee of the Automobile Club of America today acted favorably upon the application of the Savannah Automobile Club and the municipal authorities of that city to transfer the grand prize automobile race from Long Island to Savannah.

Today's decision of the contest committee is subject to ratification by the board of governors of the Automobile Club of America. A meeting has been called of the latter body for tomorrow, and it is understood that the action of the contest committee will be upheld.

A tentative date of November 12 has been set for the contest.

Already plans are being perfected to hold three minor events for stock cars classed according to piston displacement on the day preceding the running of the grand prize race. One of the prizes to be awarded on that day is to be the Savannah challenge trophy, valued at about $2,000.

IRATE FATHER PLANS TO SET WEDDING ASIDE

Danville, Va., Girl Was Married in Macon to D. J. Arnold.

Macon, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—W. A. Tindall, the father of Miss Vina Tindall, who ran away from Danville last week, and was married in Macon to D. J. Arnold upon a license secured for Miss Tindold, has written Ordinary C. M. Wiley asking for a copy of the marriage license. He wanted the original if possible. "If not," he wrote, "hold to what you have, you will be called on later."

Ordinary Wiley is "holding to what he has," but is sure the irate father will "come back."

The young couple have been married more than a week. The father is planning to have the ceremony set aside.

Brave Lad Gives His Life in an Unsuccessful Effort to Save Friend.

Louisville, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—While bathing in a pond near their home, 10 miles from here, Buyns Hayden, 15 years old, and Floyd Rabun, 14 years old, were both drowned late yesterday afternoon.

The boys are sons of prominent planters in this section.

Young Rabun was drowned while trying to rescue the Hayden boy.

NO PARADE FRIDAY AT FORT M'PHERSON

Seventeenth Leaves Today for Practice March and Minor Maneuvers.

The Seventeenth regiment will leave today on a practice march and miner tactical maneuvers, going south of the post, between Ben Hill and Union City. The maneuvers will be under the direction of Colonel Van Orsdale. On account of this march there will be no parade at the fort on Friday.

Association Closes.

Folkston, Ga., October 10.—(Special.) The Piedmont Baptist Association closed its session here last night. It was considered one of the best sessions ever held by the association. Judge T. A. Parker was re-elected moderator, and Rev. A. M. McCool was re-elected clerk, and W. J. Carswell was elected treasurer of the association. The Piedmont is composed of forty-four churches, and is supporting the Bunn-Bell Institute, located at Waycross, Ga., and which bids fair to be one of the best schools of its kind in the state.

Glee Club to Organize.

Macon, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—The Mercer Glee Club will be organized this week. With a number of the old members of the club back to form a nucleus, and the new material to be given a try-out this week, the club should be equal to that of last year. Some of the young men have excellent voices, which can be developed. The college boys are manifesting much interest in the formation of the club, Professor Comer will have charge of the club.

Russell Smith, Lawrenceville.

Lawrenceville, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Russell Smith died at his home here Sunday night after a long illness from typhoid fever. He is survived by his wife and four children. The remains will be interred at McEndree church Tuesday morning, the service being conducted by Rev. C. H. Branch. Mr. Smith was a member of the Methodist church.

Cordelele's Cotton Receipts.

Cordele, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Notwithstanding the extreme drouth throughout Crisp county of ten weeks' duration in August and September, that cut the cotton crop about one-fourth short, nearly 9,000 bales have so far been received by wagon, and it is estimated there is still between four and five thousand bales yet unmarketed.

Suit for Alimony.

Macon, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—R. A. McCall has been called into superior court by a suit for alimony, filed by his wife, Mrs. Willie McCall, who claims he has been devoting his attentions to another woman. She has not asked for a divorce, but is living apart from her husband, and asks the court for a reasonable support from the wages of her husband.

Rev. J. E. Kennedy, Grayson.

Lawrenceville, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Rev. John E. Kennedy, a prominent Baptist minister of Grayson, died Saturday, and was buried at Chestnut Grove Sunday. He was 68 years of age.

ROSE'S CONSTITUTION RYE
"The Whiskey With a Pedigree"

Away back yonder in 1867 one pure, straight whiskey was selected for its delightful aroma, another for its flavor, and a third for its generous body and found to make a blend second to none, then it was aged in charred oak barrels to thoroughly merge each good point with each other one, with the result that in mellowness, taste, aroma and bouquet as well as purity ROSE'S CONSTITUTION RYE has never yet been equalled. Every barrel is personally blended by Randolph Rose and aged for years before it is offered for sale. It is the finest whiskey for medicinal purposes known in the South. I want you to try it, and if you do not find it a better whiskey than you ever used, return the balance left after your trial and your money will be instantly refunded.

CONSTITUTION RYE is not a cheap Whiskey. Its QUALITY makes it worth the price. You can buy many whiskies for less money but if you want a superb, old, mellow rye for medicinal use—something a great deal better than the ordinary—you will not be disappointed in CONSTITUTION.

4 Quarts CONSTITUTION for $6.00, or twelve quarts for $16.00, express prepaid to all points reached by the Southern or Adams Express Companies.

With your order we will include, with our compliments, a handsome pint hunting flask filled with a rare old Select Stock Rye, not for sale at any price. The quantity in existence is so small we cannot do this after January 1st, 1911.

EDWARD LEGACY GIVEN RELEASE BY THE POLICE

Victim of Pickpocket Would Not Swear Legacy Was the Right Man.

Edward Legacy, the soldier who was arrested on suspicion of having picked a man's pocket in a street car, was freed Sunday by the police, when the prosecutor, T. L. Moody, of 165 Randolph street, failed to give proof of Legacy's guilt.

When Patrolman Gillespie arrested Legacy Saturday night, Moody pointed him out as the man who robbed him of $45, and told the officer, it is said, that he was quite positive that he could not be mistaken.

Later Moody admitted to the detectives that he could not swear on oath that he saw Legacy get his purse, and the soldier's release was ordered.

Several of Legacy's fellow soldiers at Fort McPherson stated that he was a man of good character and would not stoop to the crime of which he was suspected. He had been a member of the Seventeenth for five years and in the service for nearly twenty years.

COBB COUNTY FAIR OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

Cobb County Agricultural and Chicken show will open on Wednesday and hold until October 15 at Cogburn's park, in Marietta. The people of Atlanta are invited to attend, especially those who have left Cobb county, across the Chattahoochee, and are now living in Atlanta. Governor Brown will address the people on Thursday at 1 o'clock, and the baby show will be held on Friday.

SEVENTH DIVISION I.O.O.F. WILL MEET IN AMERICUS

Semi-Annual Session Will Begin on Tuesday Afternoon, October 18.

Americus, Ga., Octobe r10.—(Special.) Americus will be the Mecca for the Odd Fellows of division No. 7, which assembles here in semi-annual session on Tuesday, October 18, and the occasion gives promise of being of more than usual interest among I. O. O. F. members of this part of the state.

Several Georgia cities will be represented in the assemblage, each with a large delegation.

The convention will be called to order in the hall of the Sumter lodge, No. 264, at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 18th, by F. G. Oliver, division deputy grand master.

The afternoon session will be taken up with routine business, reports of committees, representatives, the readings of reports and resolutions. There will be short talks from members and the exemplification of the secret work.

The night meeting will open at 8 o'clock, the large armory of the Americus Light Infantry having been secured for that session.

The Americus orchestra will favor the visitors with a fine concert during the evening. Rev. Willie W. Hill will deliver the invocation after, which the assemblage will resolve itself into a social session.

L. J. Blalock, of Sumter lodge, will deliver an address, and will be followed shortly thereafter by Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Augusta. Mr. Jones is one of the most eloquent pulpit orators in the state, with an established reputation as an orator, and will delight his audience.

Mrs. W. W. Roberts will read a selection, while there will be short talks by others present.

The Furnishings

OF A GENTLEMEN above all other apparel of dress should be of the best quality one's purse will allow—should be of tasteful designs and shades—of correct vogue and always selected with the consciousness of its being favorably admired or critically scorned.

Eiseman Bros. make it an imperative rule to allow nothing of a vulgar nature—gaudy and freakish articles, or styles that have become obsolete—to find a place in this department.

Instead, it is our aim and ambition to supply the trade of Atlanta with just the proper furnishings picked from lines of the most reputable makers in this or foreign countries.

Our Fall stock of Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, Neckwear, Collars, Gloves, etc., is one selected with care, intelligence and a thorough knowledge of the needs of the refined and cultured dressers.

MR. PAXON ADDRESSES MARTHA BERRY CIRCLE

Mrs Frank Inman, president of the Atlanta Martha Berry Circle, presided at an enthusiastic meeting of the organization yesterday morning. Mr. Frederic J. Paxon, who acted as one of Colonel Roosevelt's escorts during his recent visit to the Martha Berry school, addressed the meeting, and imparted to the interested members a new spirit of helpfulness. Like all who have visited the school, Mr. Paxon saw in the earnest face of the boys that spirit and life which has animated the great effort of Miss Berry i: their behalf, and he eloquently expressed to the meeting the noble purposes of the institution, being so fully realized in a system of education directly related to life.

Mrs. Inman was equally interesting in relating her impressions of the school, and in a short time the entire circle is planning to visit the school. Plans for the year's work were discussed.

Edwards-Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Preston Edwards announce the engagement of their daughter, Olivia, to Mr. James Flavel Wilson, of Memphis, Tenn., the marriage to take place on November 22 at home.

D. A. R. Restaurant.

The Order of Old Fashioned Women will have charge today of the D. A. R. restaurant at 124 Peachtree street, and their menu is an attractive one as follows:

Roast beef, Brunswick stew, rice, French peas, creamed potatoes, Waldorf salad, apple pie, coffee, hot rolls.

Luncheon—Stuffed ham, creamed potatoes, cold slaw, coffee, hot rolls.

The waitresses will be: Misses Rawson, Phinizy, Dancy, Charles Owens, Gentry, Gladys Levin, Laura and Helen Payne, Margaret Dissosway, Marjorie Brown and Esther Smith.

Mrs. Haden Succeeds Mrs. Lee.

Mrs. Charles J. Haden has been elected second vice president of the Atlanta Woman's Club, the resignation of Mrs. J. W. Lee making the vacancy. Mrs. Woods White is first vice president, and at the meeting yesterday announcement was made of the appointment of Miss Sarah J. Whaley as chairman of the class in sociology, and Mrs. Sitler, of the faculty of the Cunningham school, as chairman of literature. The chairmen of the various committees, whose names appeared in Saturday's Constitution, were present at Monday's meeting and in response to the request of the president of the club, Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, they gave brief outlines of the work to be inaugurated for the year.

There w. a good attendance and the committees will begin the organizing of their work this week. Miss Whaley's class in sociology meets Tuesday afternoon, and the first meeting af the class in literature will be held Friday.

To Mrs. Thomas W. Raoul.

Mrs. William Green Raoul has issued invitations to a tea Monday afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Thomas Wadley Raoul, of Asheville, N. C.

Drill This Afternoon.

The ladies and gentlemen to take part in the horseback quadrille at the Horse Show will meet this afternoon with Lieutenant Emile Laurson, at the Piedmont park. This will be one of the most interesting features of the show and will be followed by the contest for the diamond Horse Show pin, which was won first by Miss Charles Owens, and last year by Miss Eleanor Raoul. The rehearsals for the quadrille will take place every afternoon from now until the Horse Show, the drill to take place two evenings during the show.

Mrs. Moore Coming.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore, of St. Louis, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be present at the meeting of the Georgia federation in Athens, November 2, 3 and 4. The meeting will be one of the most largely attended in the history of the federation and will be presided over by the able president, Mrs. Hugh Willet.

Mrs. Harry C. White, chairman of the program committee, has arranged for many interesting and brilliant features, and the brightest women in Georgia will be among the speakers.

Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb will entertain at a large reception the first evening of the convention. A report of vital interest to the women of Georgia will be that of the chairman of hospital committee for state institutions. Mrs. Walter Lamar, of Macon, will make this report and will visit the various state educationl institutions, none of which have adequate facilities. Mrs. Lamar visited the hospital of the Georgia Tech Monday, the building being delayed for lack of more funds.

There are eight rooms which may be endowed as memorials in this hospital, the amount to entitle one to endow and name a room being $250.

It is the earnest desire of Dr. Matheson and those interested in the welfare of the school that the hospital be completed as soon as possible before cold weather, for in case of the illness of students at present there is nowhere to put them where they can be properly cared for.

Atlanta Friends Invited.

Atlanta friends of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Jones, of Louisville, Ky., have received an invitation to a buffet luncheon which Mr. and Mrs. Jones are giving during the horse show festivities there. The Louisville show is holding this week, and there are many people from all sections in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will attend the Atlanta show next week.

To Miss Williamson.

One of the prettiest of the series of parties in compliment to Miss Helen Williamson, a bride-elect, was the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. C. J. Christensen at Cafe Durand.

The party of seven were seated around a table artistic in finish, its centerpiece a basket of Killarney roses. The handle was tied with pink tulle, and the silver candlesticks had shades the same color. The place cards were Cupids, and souvenirs were pink vases filled with rice.

Mrs. Christensen was becomingly gowned in green silk, with a black picture hat, and Miss Williamson wore a prunella-colored cloth gown, her beaver hat trimmed with flowers the same color.

The guests included the bridesmaids.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Mattingly, Jr., gave a theater party for Miss Williamson and Mr. Beaudry.

Parker-Hudson.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Bessie Powell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Parker, to Mr. Roland B. Hudson, on September 24, 1910, at Chicago, Ill. The young couple will be at home at 818 Rush street, Chicago.

Mr. Hudson is an old Atlanta boy, having lived in this city for several years prior to leaving for his new home in the west a few years ago.

BETTER EXAMINATION OF NATIONAL BANKS

Comptroller Murray Will Begin Visit for That Purpose.

Washington, October 10.—In the hope of establishing a more efficient examination of national banks, Comptroller of the Currency Lawrence O. Murray will begin his long planned visit to examiners in the field tomorrow. His first stop will be at Baltimore. The eastern district of Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey will be visited before the comptroller returns to Washington to begin his inspection in the west.

None of the banks he visits will be under any special investigation. His trip is to study the methods of the examiners. A virtual reorganization of the force is predicted as one of the results of his trip.

TWO MILLIONAIRES TO ENTER CONTEST

Vanderbilt and Sorg to Be Competitors in Atlanta Horse Show.

Not only the interest of the public, but that of professional and amateur horsemen is rapidly crystalizing about the Atlanta horse show, which opens next Tuesday night. The entries already received, numbering several hundred of the finest horses in the United States, assure the audiences the best exhibitions ever given in the south, while there are half a dozen or more exhibitors coming whose stables will lend the occasion all the pomp and splendor of the national and international horse shows.

The ring of saddle horses alone will be sufficient to samp the show the most entertaining of its kind the country has ever known. With such horses as Kentucky's Choice, Bourbon Prince, Edna May, Golden Glow, Roosevelt, and Dreadnaught, the great English saddle horse of Alfred Vanderbilt, all in one ring competing for the coveted blue, there is sure to be intense enthusiasm throughout the great auditorium. Horsemen declare there has never been a meeting of such famous horses in one ring, and there will probably never be such another.

Many Local Entries.

The entries received from local owners far excel those of former years. D. N. McCullough will exhibit, in addition to his well-known and highly-popular Princess Patricia, his new light harness horse Aurora, recently purchased in Kentucky. Mr. Frank Inman has a new light harness horse, Lawson, and two superb new saddle horses, both of which are sure to be strong contenders in their classes. There are a dozen or more new local horses entered.

The announcement that Paul A. Sorg, of New York, would bring his horses here has aroused the keenest interest among all Atlantans who keep up with events in the New York horse world. It means that Atlanta will have the most exciting kind of contests between Mr. Vanderbilt's horses and those of Mr. Sorg. In the recent horse show at Brockton, Mass., Mr. Sorg's entries won the blue over Mr. Vanderbilt's repeatedly, but it is not at all sure that he will do the same here. At any rate, there will be a contest between millionaires that will be worth coming miles to see.

The sale of seats for the single performances begins October 13, at 9 a. m., at the store of Daniel Brothers, 45 Peachtree street.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

YOUTH MISSING AFTER STRUGGLE

David Winn's Fitzgerald Home Found in State of Disorder.

Fitzgerald, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—David Winn, a young man residing northwest of Fitzgerald, mysteriously disappeared some time Sunday from the house where he and another young man by the name of Nelson had been living. Nelson came to Fitzgerald Saturday night to spend Sunday with his parents, and when he went back to the farm Sunday evening he found the house presenting the appearance of a fierce struggle, tables overturned, dishes broken, Winn's hat with two bullet holes in it and a pair of Winn's pants cut in many places, and covered with blood. Nothing could be found of Winn.

Posses of men have been searching all day, but nothing has been found. Buggy tracks leading from the door were followed for 5 miles and then lost.

A neighbor living 100 rods away says he heard shots about 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

The young man had been warned to leave the place on account of trouble with neighbors over cattle thad had eaten up his crops, and it is thought that might have led to his disappearance.

Judge Mason Dead.

Natchez, Miss., October 10.—Judge L. F. Mason, formerly secretary of state of Louisiana, and judge of the district court of the parishes of Catahoula, Tensas and Concordia, La., died in a local sanitarium here today of an abdominal tumor, aged 60 years.

Orders of Steel Trust.

New York, October 10.—Unfilled orders on the books of the United States Steel Corporation for the month ending September 30, total 3,158,106 tons, compared with 3,537,128 tons for the month ending August 31. The figures were announced today. The low record for unfilled orders was 3,027,436 tons on September 30, 1904.

Population of Vermont.

Washington, October 10.—The population of the state of Vermont as enumerated for the thirteenth census and made public by the census bureau today showed an increase of 12,315, or 3.6 per cent, the total number of inhabitants being 355,956, as compared with 343,641 in 1900. In the previous decade from 1890 to 1900, Vermont increased its population 11,219, or 3.4 per cent.

MANAGERS NAMED FOR CITY PRIMARY

Changes Made at Request of Woodward.

Representatives of Mr. Winn Stated They Would Be Glad to Have Mr. Woodward Represented at All Polling Places. Where Polls Will Be Located.

The primary committee of the city executive committee finished its work yesterday at noon of appointing the managers and clerks and naming the polling places for the white primary on October 21, which is one week from next Friday.

At the meeting of the committee some changes were made in the list of managers and clerks on the request of a committee representing James G. Woodward, candidate for mayor. This committee, composed of M. B. Young, Dr. Joseph Jacobs and Attorney C. P. Goree, stated that in several wards all the managers and clerks selected were for Mr. Winn and opposed to Mr. Woodward.

W. T. Winn, representing the Winn campaign, stated that Mr. Winn's committee would be only too glad for Mr. Woodward to be represented at all the polling places, so there could not possibly be any charge of unfairness.

Changes Are Made.

Four or five changes were agreed upon by the primary committee, and Mr. Woodward's friends expressed themselves as satisfied.

The fourth, as well as the second, third and sixth wards, will have two ballot boxes and a double set of managers and clerks, because citizens of that ward claimed that the registration was large this year, on account of the ward lines being changed.

Everything is now ready for the election, and from now on it will be "hustle" with all the candidates who have opposition.

Polling Places.

The following are the polling places for the white primary on October 21:

First Ward—No. 36 Madison avenue.
Second Ward—Basement of the courthouse.
Third Ward—No. 324 East Fair street.
Fourth Ward—No. 403 Edgewood avenue.
Fifth Ward—No. 807 Marietta street.
Sixth Ward—No. 72 Marietta street.
Seventh Ward—No. 205 Lee street.
Eighth Ward—Corner Tenth and Peachtree streets.
Ninth Ward—New ninth ward engine house, on Moreland avenue.
Tenth Ward—Office of Dr. John W. White.

Managers and Clerks for Primary.

The following are the managers and clerks appointed by the primary committee of the city executive committee for the white primary of October 21, and it is the first correct list that has been published:

First Ward.

Managers: I. N. Willis, W. C. Puckett, W. M. Middlebrooks; clerks: F. D. Salter, W. E. Harwell, M. W. Bargo.

Second Ward.

Managers: Edward Crusselle, H. Cronheim, W. A. Fuller, Jack McBride, S. W. Bacon, Sr., James Bell; clerks: H. S. Benjamin, Henry Bellingrath, J. E. Fain, Frank L. Malone, D. E. Ashby, Robert R. Otis.

Third Ward.

Managers: Frank Hill, J. E. Belcher, C. P. Bentley, W. S. Loftis, J. T. Jones, Matt C. Carroll; clerks: E. L. Fanning, J. C. Little, W. A. Acree, E. D. Haynes, J. A. Brownlee, A. C. Hubor.

Fourth Ward.

Managers: W. S. Featherstone, C. P. Goree, W. P. Howard, W. M. Terry, A. D. Thomson, A. J. Haygood; clerks: J. B. Marbury, H. Douglas, Jr., H. F. Garrett, T. L. Bond, H. O. Reese, G. B. Saunders.

Fifth Ward.

Managers: J. E. Daniel, J. N. Patrick, H. H. Norman; clerks: J. D. Langston, V. N. Carroll, C. A. Pitts.

Sixth Ward.

Managers: O. H. Puckett, C. W. Hatcher, M. C. Strickland, W. O. Trammell, George H. Boynton, Jesse M. Wood; clerks: E. T. Beacham, W. T. Tomlinson, Jesse Draper, D. A. Pirkle, O. H. Starnes, G. W. Hawkins.

Seventh Ward.

Managers: S. A. Wilson, Roy Abernathy, W. M. Weathers; clerks: Jesse W. Armistead, Walter A. Daniel, J. E. Garrison.

Eighth Ward.

Managers: Charles F. Rice, W. F. Crusselle, Dr. J. W. Hurt; clerks: Nat Wilson, R. Lee Walker, Virgil Jones.

Ninth Ward.

Managers: W. E. Q. Baker, J. W. McWilliams, J. C. Todd, Sr.; clerks: J. H. Johnston, J. B. Richards, Jr., E. S. O'Brien.

Tenth Ward.

Managers: Dr. J. W. White, R. A. McMurray, George McWilliams; clerks: E. J. Bryant, John W. Chapman, D. J. Lee.

ROOT IS SUMMONED BY PRESIDENT TAFT

Senator Says Republicans Have "Fighting Chance" in New York.

Beverly, Mass., October 10.—A five hours' conference between President Taft and Senator Elihu Root, of New York, caused much speculation in Beverly today. Senator Root arrived shortly before noon and left again for New York at 5 o'clock. He would not discuss his visit to the president in any way. As to New York state he would go no farther than to say that the republicans "have a fighting chance." Of the republican convention at Saratoga, Mr. Root said it did the "logical thing." But declined to go into details.

It was reported that President Taft had summoned Senator Root to the summer capital to talk over prospective supreme court appointments among other things. This report led to a revival of the rumor that Senator Root might himself become a member of that high tribunal. Senator Root did nothing to encourage the idea that he is being considered for the supreme court bench.

It was said that Senator Root and Mr. Taft also discussed the part that Colonel Roosevelt is to play in the campaigns of this year and in 1912.

ECZEMA CURED

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING

NO CURE, NO PAY

The American Remedy Company, of Asheville, N. C., have a new and wonderful discovery, SA-NA-RE CU-TIS, which they guarantee to cure any case of eczema of no matter how long standing, and will refund the money in every case where it fails. It is perfectly clean and does not stain, and retails for 50c per package. You do not know us, and we do not know you, therefore we do not ask you to send the full amount. We are willing to risk you one-half the amount, and you will risk us for the other. Send us one-half the amount (25c) in postage stamps and we will send you the treatment by mail. After using it, if you are not entirely satisfied, notify us, and we will return the money you sent us, and of course if you are satisfied with the treatment after giving it a fair trial, you may send us the balance, 25c. We make this liberal offer because we know that everyone who uses it will recommend it to their friends. Everything that has been placed on the market for the cure of eczema has been a failure, and we realize that we could not afford to go to the expense of advertising a remedy of this kind without we knew it was far superior to anything ever placed on the market, and that it will actually cure old chronic cases of eczema, poison oak and barbers' itch.

American Remedy Co.,
Asheville, N. C.

Gentlemen—For several years I suffered with Scaly Eczema on my face so much that I was forced to wear a veil whenever I went on the streets. I tried all the different remedies I saw advertised for Eczema and got no relief, also employed different Physicians with no better success. A friend advised me to try SA-NA-RE CU-TIS. I used only one box and was completely cured in three weeks. I cannot speak too highly of its merits.

SPORTS — COBB—WHICH?—LAJOIE — Edited By DICK JEMISON

TRANCE DEFEATS JACK PARKER

In the Feature Event at Churchill Downs.

Trance Opened Big Gap at the Start, and Result Was Never in Doubt---In the Last Race Royal Report Lowered Track Record.

Louisville, Ky., October 10.—Ideal racing weather combined with a fast track and a good Monday card, served to attract a nice crowd to the Downs this afternoon, the feature of the day's sport being a handicap in the fourth at six furlongs. In this the winner turned up in Trance, who opened up a big gap soon after the start and from then on never left the issue in doubt, winning from Jack Parker, who in turn was second in front of T. M. Green. Glorio was absolutely last all the way, while Nimbus failed to run up to expectations.

In the last race Royal Report lowered the track record of 1¼ miles, the son of Requital, carrying 105 pounds, negotiating the distance in 2.05, which is one and one-fifth seconds lower than Belleview made, carrying 106 pounds. Belleview was a 6-year-old at the time he made the record, while Royal Report is a 3-year-old colt.

FIRST RACE—Two-year-old maidens, 5½ furlongs: Exemplar, 112 (Warren), won; Sigurd, 115 (Grand), second; Rompiie, 112 (Kiapp), third. Time, 1:08 3-5. Nieneban, Artemisia, Maezle, Bob Farley, Oakley, Busy Miss, Bright Maiden, Edna Perry, Zellwood, Rodman, Red Klaw ran.

Two-dollar mutuels paid: Exemplar, straight, $7.60; place, $4; show, $3.50. Sigurd, place, $5.30; show, $3.90. Rompie, show, $16.50.

SECOND RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs: Dainty Dame, 101 (Moore), won; Dominus Arvi, 107 (Howard), second; Billy Bodemer, 109 (Herbert), third. Time, 1:14 1-5. Wool Sandals, Miami, Sinfran, Gypsy King, West Bury, Aspirin, Falcada, Nunda, Cowen ran.

Two-dollar mutuels paid: Dainty Dame, $7.70; place, $4.40; show, $3.70. Dominus Arvi, place, $27; show, $7.40. Billy Bodemer, show, $4.60.

THIRD RACE—Selling, 3-year-olds, 1 mile: Elizabethan, 102 (Koerner), won; Starport, 100 (Moore), second; Col. Ashemeade, 97 (Steinhardt), third. Time, 1:40 4-5. Southern Gold, Lotta Creed, Anna, Galliota, Indian Maid, Sigo ran.

Two-dollar mutuels paid: Elizabethan, straight, $32.10; place, $13.50; show, $5.20. Starport, place, $7.50; show, $4.30. Col. Ashemeade, show, $3.10.

FOURTH RACE—Handicap, 3-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs: Trance, 110 (Kennedy), won; Jack Parker, 102 (Reid), second; T. M. Green, 110 (Thomas), third. Time, 1:12 4-5. Carlton G., Nimbus, Glorio ran.

Two-dollar mutuels paid: Trance, straight, $5.20; place, $3.90; show, $2.70. Jack Parker, place, $11.80; show, $4.80. T. M. Green, show, $3.50.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs: Jack Denman, 113 (Grand), won; County Tax, 109 (Moore), second; Gold Oak, 103 (Goose), third. Time, 1:14 3-5. Fairy Story, Princess Industry, Agility, James Mc, Explicit ran.

FORT ERIE.

Buffalo, N. Y., October 10.—Racing on the Canadian circuit closes tomorrow with the final day of the fall meet at Fort Erie. The Canadian associations have enjoyed a fairly profitable season despite the limitation of fourteen days' racing on each track fixed by the new law.

The track was four seconds slow today. Summaries:

FIRST RACE—Five and a half furlongs: Garneau, 100 (J. Wilson), 10 to 1, 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, won; Rash, 107 (Walsh), 7 to 2, 7 to 5, 7 to 10, second; Herbert Turner, 104 (Nicolai), 4 to 1, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:10 3-5. Capsize, Melton Street and Jim Landborrower also ran.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs: Anna L. Daly, 107 (J. Wilson), 9 to 10, 1 to 3 and out, won; Medminster, 103 (Lang), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and 3 to 5, second; Gwendolin F., 107 (Garner), 9 to 1, 3 to 1 and 7 to 5, third. Time, 1:17 1-5. Sight, Dr. Burch, Durpee, Mike Sutton ran.

THIRD RACE—Mle and 20 yards: Lexington Lady, 111 (Lang), 3 to 2, 3 to5 and out, won; Tempter, 106 (Gross), 9 to 1, 3 to 1 and 6 to 5, second; Flashing, 103 (J. Wilson), 5 to 1, 8 to 5 and 7 to 10, third. Time, 1:49 2-5. Laughing Eyes, Morpeth, Kenmare Queen and Gilpin also ran.

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs: Dr. Barkley, 114 (J. Wilson), 2 to 1, 7 to 10 and 1 to 3, won; Oxer, 105 (Garner), 13 to 5, 9 to 10 and 1 to 3, second; Domithilda, 106 (Gross), 5 to 1, 8 to 5 and 7 to 10, third. Time, 1:16 4-5. Ida D. and High Range also ran.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs: Detroit, 107 (Goldstein), 16 to 5, even and 2 to 5, won; Ceremonious, 110 (Walsh), 9 to 1, 3 to 1 and 7 to 5, second; Golconda, 102 (Killingsworth), 20 to 1, 7 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:17 1-5. Judge Lassing, Kokomo and Woodlane ran.

SIXTH RACE—Mile and an eighth: Dixie Knight, 109 (Goldstein), 7 to 1, 7 to 2 and even, won; Nethermost, 107 (J. Wilson), 9 to 5, 4 to 5 and 1 to 3, second; Hooray, 109 (G. Burns), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:59 3-5. First Peep, Rifleman and Baron Esher ran.

LOCAL TRACK WILL HAVE SWELL LIST

Entries Will Pass Sixty. Fastest Cars Made, Too.

The Atlanta Speedway will have more cars this fall for the races than ever a speedway had before in the history of racing. With 38 entries now and fifteen to twenty more practical certainties there is nothing to it.

The three Abbott-Detroit entries are expected from the factory this week. Manager J. M. Mye wires from New York that he is pretty certain that he can round up the Chadwick that won the Fairmount Park race for the local free-for-all events. Things look promising now for a Pullman entry.

The owner of the American car that was in the Vanderbilt has agreed to enter that machine in Atlanta provided the factory will overhaul it. And there seems no doubt but that can be arranged. Wallace will drive that car if it is entered.

The Buick company will decide in a few days about their entries. The prospects seem good for Atlanta to get the two fast Marquette machines, with Arthur Chevrolet and Bob Burman as drivers.

Louis Disbrow, who drove to a wonderful victory in the City of Atlanta race last fall, is keen on the trail of a Pope-Hartford, and expects to be able to land one for the Atlanta meet.

The Stoddard-Dayton pair that raced in the Vanderbilt may be sent to Atlanta. They have been sent to the factory to be overhauled, and if they come out all right they will be entered in the Atlanta free-for-alls.

The Lozier team has reserved rooms in Atlanta for October 16, so by a bit after the middle of the month the winner of the Elgin National trophy and its speedy six-cylindered brother will be on the Atlanta track.

BILLY SMITH GETS HARRY COVALESKI

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 10.—(Special.)—Billy Smith today announces that he has purchased Harry Covaleski, the big Pole, who was with Birmingham last season, from Cincinnati. The purchase price is not announced, but it is said to be $3,000, as this is known to be the price that the Reds wanted for the big left-hander.

Whether Billy made a good move by getting Covaleski, remains to be seen. True, Covaleski had a good year in the Southern League last season, but he has been a dismal failure in Cincinnati.

Our contention is that Covaleski has a "yellow streak." We contended that last year, but he "got by" in this league, primarily because the batters appeared to be afraid of him.

But watch out next season. Every mogul is going to ingtruct his batters to go to the plate and "wait out his string," believing Covaleski will walk him.

Jordan demonstrated at Ponce de Leon on July 12 that Covaleski could be rattled. The Pole had twirled a two-hit game for seven innings, but under Jordan's incessant ragging, he "blew" and the Crackers pulled out the game, aided mostly by the Pole's wildness. He will have to eliminate this to get by in 1911.

BASKETBALL MEN HOLD MEETING

A.A.C. Players Have Enthusiastic Meeting. Practice Tonight.

The basketball men of the Atlanta Athletic Club held a meeting at the club rooms last night that was the most enthusiastic one held in years and one that spells well for the team this winter. The first practice will be held tonight.

The Atlanta Athletic Club has all along had as good material as any team in the south to work with, but the spirit has been lacking. The men have had too many numerous engagements at night that kept them away from the practices.

This hurt the team, as team play is as much, if not more, essential in basketball than in all the other games, and the club men could not get team play for the reason that they did not have the same men at the practices two successive nights during the entire season.

However, the spirit is there this year, and the rest of the teams throughout the south will have to keep their eyes peeled on the Atlanta Athletic Club bunch this year.

Coach Joe Bean made a very stirring talk to the men, bringing their patriotism to the club to the front, and the men have played themselves to work hard and sacrifice themselves for the good of the team. Among those who attended the meeting were Doonan, Hudson, Davis, Jemison, Spencer, Atkisson, Thornton, Draper, Colquitt, McGovern, Ramspeck, of last year's squad, and several new men.

FLEET JOAN CAPTURES TRANSYLVANIA STAKE

She Also Broke World's Record for Four-Year-Old Fillies.

Lexington, Ky., October 15.—Joan, property of Captain David Shaw, of Cleveland, Ohio, won the Transylvania stake, the $5,025 feature of the grand circuit harness races, here today, in straight heats, in the first of which she broke the world's record for 4-year-old trotting fillies, going the mile in 2:05¾, half a second better than her own race record, made at Columbus.

Grace, also owned by Captain Shaw, won the championship stallion stake, worth $4,402 to the winner.

W. E. D. Stokes, breeder of her sire, Peter the Great, was awarded a $250 silver cup.

The 2:09 trot went to Sopranel, Edward and Joseph Madden's chestnut mare, which won the last three heats.

Joan defeated the best field of the year, including Dudie Archdale and Billy Burke. McDevitt, in each heat, held her in second or third place until the turn into the stretch, and then sent her to the front, and in each instance she won with something to spare.

The Abbe, prohibitive favorite in the Wilson stake, took the event in straight heats, making his twelfth consecutive victory for the season. Twinkling Dan took the pacing division of the Kentucky Futurity, and Betsy G. took the 2:19 trot. Both carried over from Saturday.

The Johnston stake went to Baron Penn, which took the last three heats.

The weather was ideal. Driver Nottingham was fined $250 for not trying to win with Hallworthy in the first heat of the Transylvania.

PICKED TEAM TRIMS MACK'S CHAMPIONS

Philadelphia, October 10.—The new champions of the American League were defeated 5 to 4 in a ten-inning contest by a picked team here this afternoon, the first of the exhibition games to be played this week to keep the players on edge for the world's series. The picked team was made up pricipally of subtitutes from the Athletics. Morgan, who pitched for the picked team, allowed the champions only six hits, while the substitutes hit Dygert quite hard. The champions took the lead and were tied up in the eighth inning. The picked team won out in the tenth.

SCANDAL GROWS OVER THAT AUTO

"Nap Outguessed Us," Says Brown Manager.

"I Ought to Have Had Nine Hits," Says Lajoie---"Suspicious," Asserts Detroit Owner---Prizes Barred for Evermore, Say Big League Heads.

The scandal in the American League over the league leadership in batting is still growing.

"He outguessed us" is the way Manager O'Connor, of the Browns, puts it.

"I ought to have had nine hits," is the wail of Nap Lajoie.

"It looks suspicious to me," is what Navin has to say.

"No more prizes of any kind," is the dictum of Ban Johnson and August Herrmann.

Chicago, October 10.—President B. B. Johnson, of the American League, today announced that no more prizes would be offered or permitted while he continued at the head of that baseball organization. He also said that he was making an investigation of the allegations made by St. Louis sporting writers. "Even if the assertions prove unfounded," said President Johnson, "the merest suspicion of crookedness works irreparable injury to the game."

No More Prizes.

Cincinnati, October 10.—August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball commission, in discussing the Lajoie incident tonight, said:

"Lajoie and Cobb, according to unofficial averages, have the race for the leading batsmen in both leagues between them. The national commission can not decide unil it receives the official averages of both leagues. I do want to say one thing, however, since the question came up as to the hits made by Lajoie at St. Louis being genuine, and that is that no more prizes or bonuses will be permitted under the rules of the national commission."

Help—Listen to Lajoie.

Cincinnati, October 10.—"I have nothing to say," was the way Napoleon Lajoie answered a request for a statement here tonight regarding the manner in which he made eight hits in two games at St. Louis yesterday.

Lajoie was told that Frank Navin, president of the Detroits, had said that his feat at St. Louis yesterday looked suspicious. "So it looked suspicious to Navin, did it?" said Lajoie. "Well, he knows he can take it before the league if he wants to and at that time I certainly will have my say. Until that time I can only say that I not only got eight hits yesterday in a regular manner, but that I should be credited with nine."

Suspicious, Says Navin.

Detroit, Mich., October 10.—Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit American Baseball Club, declared today that the hitting of Lajoie in St. Louis looked suspicious.

"It looked like a raw deal," he said, "but I don't know whether or not the league will take action. The league can throw out games for justifiable reasons.

"I think when the averages are given out it will be found that Cobb is the leader. At least I hope so."

Out-Guessed Us, Says O'Connor.

St. Louis, October 10.—Each of the five local sporting writers in commenting on yesterday's American League baseball games between Cleveland and St. Louis, charge today that certain of the local team allowed Lajoie to obtain hits. The object of this, it is charged, was to enable him to score more hits during the season than were credited to Cobb, of Detroit. Lajoie is credited by the official scorer as being at bat four times in each game of the double-header. Each time he obtained a hit. In the summary he is also given a sacrifice hit. One hit was a clean wallop for three bases.

The other seven were bunts the St. Louis players were slow in handling.

Malloy and Nelson were the St. Louis pitchers. In the only other game which Malloy pitched against Cleveland, Lajoie got one hit in three times at bat. Nelson never pitched to Lajoie before.

"Lajoie out-guessed us," said Manager O'Connor. "We figured he did not have the nerve to bunt every time. He beat us at our own game. I will not send any of my players in to play up close to Lajoie when he tries to bunt."

Defense of Lajoie.

Cleveland, Ohio, October 10.—Sporting writers here who have watched Lajoie at bat through many seasons point to a switch in his style of play as one possible reason for his ability to turn seven bunts into as many hits at St. Louis Sunday, after driving out a long three-base hit. Lajoie is regarded as about the last of the old-time slugging batsmen and was so described by Tyrus Cobb in an interview last week.

In games throughout the circuit fielders of opposing teams have been accustomed to play far back to intercept his terrific line drives. Sporting writers declare that Sunday was the first day in his career that he bunted so often in succession.

BATTLING NELSON BESTS MONTE DALE

Kansas City, Mo., October 10.—In his first fight since Ad Wolgast stripped him of his championship laurels last February 22, Battling Nelson tonight won from Monte Dale, of Denver, after three rounds of fighting at 138 pounds.

At the beginning of the fourth round Dale's second threw up the sponge in order to save their man from a knockout. Dale broke his left arm in the second round, and it was for this reason that his seconds said they stopped the fight. Nelson was clearly the master of his opponent, however, and would have won apparently, even though Dale had not suffered an accident.

NORFOLK HAS QUIT VIRGINIA LEAGUE

Richmond, Va., October 10.—At a meeting of Virginia baseball magnates here tonight, it was determined to organize the Eastern Virginia League, with Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News, Hampton, Phoebus and Suffolk as members. The old State League was reorganized, with the same circuit as heretofore.

C. A. Williams, of Roanoke, was elected president of the State League, and the salary limit of the league was reduced from $1,750 to $1,200, exclusively of a playing manager.

W. M. Hannan, of Norfolk, was made president of the Eastern League.

Cardinal Netto Released.

Already hundreds of inmates of the religious establishments have crossed the border, but the most interesting event today in connection with the ediet of expulsion was the release from custody of Cardinal Netto, former patriarch of Lisbon, whose arrest, the minister of justice explained, was with the object of protecting him from possible outrage.

Foreign Minister Machado has sent a circular to all foreign countries, declaring that the republic will recognize all contracts, alliances and financial obligations entered into by the monarchy and inviting the various governments to notify the Portugal republic of such engagement to prevent its being overlooked or forgotten.

Under the decree of expulsion, all the Jesuits' property reverts to the state. The property of the other religious committee will be sealed, and disposed of later in accordance with whatever relations are established between the state and church.

The Jesuits have enormous quantities of land and in addition gold and silver church ornaments, vestments, chalices, studded with precious stones and valuable cellars of old wine. It is reported that the Irish Dominican friars and nuns possessing a church and convent here will be examined. No masses were celebrated in Lisbon Sunday in any church except that of the Dominican fathers, over which the British flag floats.

General Pimentel Pinto, one of the few monarchical leaders who took any active share in attempting to suppress the revolutionary movement, has been liberated, agreeing that he would do nothing to disturb the republic.

Outrages on Clergy.

Revolutionary leaders, having overthrown the monarchy, are now confronted with the scarcely less serious task of putting an end to excesses on the part of the rough element of their own followers, who, having had a taste of mob rule, are prone to continue lawlessness.

The decree of summary banishment for the religious orders gave excuse for brutal outrages against the clergy.

The provisional government has now recognized the seriousness of the situation and today the police adopted severe measures to prevent the population sacking the religious establishments and to check the demonstrations against the religionists pending their expulsion.

The mob which battered down the doors of the convent in the Rua de Quelhas was led by fanatics and a gang of ruffians, who seized occasion to destroy everything in sight. Images and statues were wrenched from the niches in the chapel, altars were wrecked, furniture was broken and the sacerdotal vestments were carried off by the rioters. The police recovered the greater part of the vestments.

Arrests of disguised and fleeing religionists continued today. The discovery of secret subterranean tunnels at the monasteries set afloat rumors that many monks were still hiding underground, awaiting a favorable opportunity to emerge and continue the fight against the new regime. To satisfy the crowd, the military initiated subterranean explorations, and in one instance dug a trench to locate the suspected tunnel.

The government has decreed the suspension by the cable companies of the acceptance and delivery of messages in code and cipher.

King Manuel to Go to England.

Gibraltar, October 10.—King Manuel of Portugal and Queen Mother Amelie decided today to proceed for England. They will leave probably within a few days, but are undetermined whether they will travel by land or sea.

The Italian warship Regina Elena arrived here this afternoon to take aboard the Dowager Queen Maria Pia, who will go to Italy.

What Shall the Harvest Be?

If you sow the wind, you will reap the whirlwind. If you spend your money in a reckless disregard for the future, you will reap an old age full of want and neglect. But if you will sow a savings account in this bank, and tend it regularly, you will reap, as your reward, the material comforts of life in your declining years. Isn't it worth the effort? DISEASES OF MEN

DR. WM. M. BAIRD.

If I have some decided and original views on these diseases it is because I have been continuously in the work for 33 years, and for 25 years have devoted my whole time to these difficult and delicate cases.

I believe that many cases of stricture may be cured with less harsh treatment than they often receive. I believe this because I have demonstrated it again and again.

I believe that Syphilis needs not only the proper remedies, but careful, intelligent methods and attention to detail in order to cure and cure permanently.

I believe that Chronic Gonorrhoea causes more physical wrecks than any other diseases. I believe this because I know. I believe that nothing needs more scientific methods in order to cure, and the man who suffers from it knows, too, that I am right.

I believe in straightforward advertising and honest business methods, combined with conscientious treatment, and if you are in need of advice, and will appreciate that kind of service, I will take pleasure in examining you free of charge.

Office hours: 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 1.

My booklets, "Diseases of Men" and "Health Essays," sent sealed and in plain wrapper on request.

I have been practicing in Atlanta longer than any advertising specialist here or any firm of advertising specialists. Any statements to the contrary are unequivocally false.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

PRICES BECAME EASY FOLLOWING ADVANCE

Cotton Market Disturbed by Suspension of a Local Firm. Closed at Decline.

New York, October 10.—The cotton market was very nervous and unsettled during today's trading. An early decline was followed by an advance which carried October and May contracts to new high records for the season, but later prices eased off, following the suspension of a small local house, and while the close was steady with October 3 points higher and November unchanged, later deliveries were 6 to 10 points net lower.

The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point on November, but generally 5 to 11 points lower, in response to disappointing cables. There was a good demand at the start, and prices rallied slightly during the first fe wminutes, as the easier cables appeared to be about the only bearish factor in the early news, but the reactionary sentiment which was so prominent in the market after the opening advance on Saturday, seemed to be again very much in evidence and offerings became very heavy in the rally. Trade interests were big buyers on a scale down, and after having shown a net loss of about 13@2 0points, the market turned firmer again toward midway, on covering by early sellers or re-buying by some of the old bulls, owing to continued bullish reports from interior southern spot markets and the readiness with which the market had absorbed the early offerings. October was relatively firm on the advance selling up to 14.58, or 15 points net higher, and May also made a new high record, selling at 14.97, or 4 points above Saturday's closing figures, but just as the bulls seemed to have the situation well in hand, sentiment was unsettled by the announcement of the suspension of a small localhouse, and the market later in the day eased off from the best, accompanied by a statement that the firm involved had a net short interest in the market at the close of business last Saturday of only 4,500 bales, and beyond its sentimental effect the affair appeared to have little influence on trading.

Southern spot markets, officially reportted early, were ⅛ lower to 1-16 higher.

The weather over Sunday was considered generally favorable aside from cold rains in portions of the southwest.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 72,633 bales, against 62,187 last week and 69,137 last year. For the week 375,000 bales, against 345,749 last week and 440,508 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 7,180 bales, against 8,694 last year.

Cotton spot closed quiet; middling uplands 14.65; middling gulf 14.90; sales 1,500 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, October 10.—Cotton, spot steady and unchanged; sales on the spot 715 bales; to arrive 1,375; low ordinary 10 13-16, nominal; ordinary 11 5-8; good ordinary 13 1-16; strict good ordinary 13 7-16; low middling 13¾; strict low middling 14; middling 14 11-16; middling fair 14 15-16; middling 14½; strict good middling 14 11-16; middling fair 14 15-16;; middling fair to fair 15 5-16; fair 15 11-16, nominal; receipts 7,180; stock 35,107.

Cotton futures opened steady at a decline of 8 to 11 points on a much lower Liverpool market than expected, which private messages explained by saying that selling had been heavy in expectation of a reaction. Selling for both accounts was heavy after the call and more active months were sent 14 to 16 points under Saturday's close. At these levels fresh buying was encountered, but this being encouraged by heavy rains in Texas over Sunday and a storm warning issued because of a disturbance in the west gulf. At the end of the first half hour of trading, prices were 4 to 8 points up from the lowest.

The market gradually strengthened as the morning session progressed, on buying that was hard to trace. The gossip of the exchange floor said that much of it was due to orders from members of the bull clique. Some brokers were inclined to think that better reports from southern spot markets and an improvement in the demand for finished goods, together with prospects of a heavy export movement of cotton during the remainder of this month had much to do with the market's recuperative power. The weather forecast predicted more rain in Texas, which was taken unfavorably. Toward noon the market firmed up on buying of covers by scalpers, who had been playing for a reaction downward, and at noon the trading months were unchanged to 1 point down, compared with Saturday's close.

The close was steady at a net decline of 7 to 9 points.

MONEY OUTLOOK MADE STOCK MARKET DULL

Great Caution Is Advised in the Extension of Speculative Credits---Bonds Steady.

New York, October 10.—The apathetic stock market of today was influenced by consideration of the banking position and the money outlook. The Saturday bank statement was regarded as enforcing necessity of great caution in the extension of speculative credits. The small addition to the actual surplus was secured only by the scaling down of deposit liabilities through the loan contraction and the clearing house loan item was changed only by shifting of loans to the other banks and trust companies, thus saving the money market from any disturbance. The outlow of cash, however, continues on a liberal scale and is likely to do so for the remainder of the month at least. Today's subtreasury statement showed an absorption of $1,146,000 from the banks for the new banking week, and a credit balance for the subtreasury at the clearing house today foreshadows another large addition to the outgo in tomorrow's statement. The process of shifting loans to the trust companies is a measure of relief for the bank has its limits.

It was sifnificant that the Bank of England secured but about half of the gold offered in London market today, the other half going to India and the continent. London financial authorities have predicted that if new gold continued to go to the continent after the recent advance in the Bank of England official discount rate, another advance in the bank rate would be necessary to protect the reserve position of the central institution. It seems likely under these circumstances that a 5 per cent Bank of England discount rate will be established before October passes. The foreign exchange market in New York was affected today by some enlarged offerings of cotton bills. These are being pressed forward in anticipation of the expiration of the period set by foreign bankers for the new requirement of guarantee by drawers of exchange of cotton bills of lading which the American bankers have refused to accede to.

The forenoon lethargy was ascribed especially to the desire to see the report of unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation for September 30, and the government report on grain crop conditions. Prices rose in response to the United States steel. The decrease of 579,022 tons in the amount of unfilled orders in the month of September was favorably interpreted in the light of the August decrease of 433,803 tons. The decrease for the quarter, also, of 1,099,688 tons, compared with a falling off of 1,144,710 tons during the preceding quarter. From these comparisons, a decreasing rate of contraction in the trade activity was argued. The argument failed to arouse any speculative enthusiasm in face of the report of the figures for the first week in October, although the latter are unofficial. Estimates of new business being entered at the rate of 45 per cent of the corporation capacity with mill operations running at 71 per cent of capacity point to a continuing shrinkage in volume of unfilled orders. The September 30 unfilled tonnage stands but 130,670,000 above the low record since the corporation was formed, touched on September 30, 1904.

Satisfaction with the government crop report was less mixed. The indicated corn crop report as of October 1 had clearly passed the coveted three billion-bushel mark, with favorable conditions since to swell the final yield. The wheat crop estimate also has been swelled to within less than 10,000,000 bushels of the 700,000,000 stage. So bountiful a harvest of the principal grains makes an addition to the wealth of the country calculated to make up vast deficiencies. Prices closed at net gains under the influence of the crop report.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,657,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

London Stock Market.

London, October 10.—American securities were quiet and featureless during the early trading today. The market at noon ranged from ¼ above to ⅛ below Saturday's New York closing. The New York bank statement was disappointing, and traders hesitated until New York sent supporting orders. Then prices hardened and the market closed steady

ARGENTINA SHOWERS DEPRESSED MARKET

Wheat Closed 3-4 to 7-8 Cent Down---Corn and Oats Lower.

Chicago, October 10.—Rain in Argentina, big world shipments and an increase on ocean passage, all combined today to depress the wheat market. Even in the face of an unexpected lessening of the visible supply, closing prices showed a net loss of ¾ to ⅞@⅞ cents. Other leading staples, too, finished on the down grade. Corn ⅜ to ⅝@½ under Saturday's close. Oats ¼@⅝ to ¾ and provisions 5 to 30c.

Breaking of the Argentine drought gave the first downward shove to wheat. For a while the only sustaining influence was the fact that receipts northwest were light and that shorts were willing to take profits. Traders generally seemed disposed to await the government reports. Foreign selling here, however, was in evidence, including some orders from Buenos Aires. Bears held full possession of the pit until figures appeared making the amount of wheat in sight in the United States 658,000 bushels less than last week, as against an increase of 3,030,000 bushels a year ago. This information led to considerable buying and rallied the market half from the low point of the day. The recovery was aided by complaints of dry weather in Kansas and Oklahoma. An easy tone, nevertheless prevailed at the close. December ranged from 97⅛ to 97¾ and finished ¾c off at 97½.

Fine weather and bearish foreign statistics were partly offset in the corn crowd by a decrease in the visible supply total. Fluctuations were unusually narrow, December selling between 49c and 49¼c, with the final quotations ⅜@½ down at 49@49⅛, and the tone easy. Cash corn was steady. No. 2 yellow closed at 51½@52. Increased notices of consignments from the country weakened oats. December varied from 32½ to 32⅞ and closed at 32½@32⅝, a net loss of ¼@⅜c.

PEACHTREE HEIGHTS.

WE OFFER for a short while a number of the most beautiful lots in this lovely subdivision. There is no subdivision on the north side that can equal Peachtree Heights. Every lot has city water, sewerage and paved street in front. Think of a lot 80x300, covered with shade trees, with the city improvements mentioned, for $1,250, $1,500 and $2,000. The very best people in Atlanta are buying lots in Peachtree Heights. Why? Because these lots are by far the best investment to be made. Every lot will double in value before it is paid for on our terms. Building has already begun in Peachtree Heights, and in the spring a large number of very beautiful homes will be erected in this lovely park. If you buy now you will get your lot before prices are advanced, which will be done later. Over $300,000 will be spent on the magnificent property across Peachtree road from Peachtree Heights, and you just watch prices shoot up when these great improvements are completed. They have already begun. Come to our office and we will take you right out on the ground and you can select your lot. Terms will be made satisfactory.

Semi-Central Proposition

HERE is a close-in corner, renting for $115 per month, with improvements in perfect condition. Can make a price to earn you over 8 per cent on your money. $5,000 cash will handle it; balance easy terms. There is a fine profit in this before your first payment falls due, for prices in this immediate territory climb higher every day. Don't you think you ought to look into this? Ask for Mr. Barnes.

Houston Street Corner

YOU who know and those who have kept sight of the big improvements taking place on this street should not hesitate or doubt for one instant that money judiciously invested on this street will bring the investor a big return. You can see what Blair Armstrong has made out of his site. You know what the DeGives are doing on their corner. Look across the street at the old Sawtell corner and ask either of these builders what they are getting out of their investment. Their answers will be more than satisfactory to you. We are offering you a valuable corner 80x60, and we promise you it will not be open long. If you are interested and have money lying idle let us hear from you, and ask for Mr. Green.

WHITEHALL STREET

ANOTHER BARGAIN we have, and one which we can guarantee a profit. This is on White hall street, a corner, close in, rented to good, responsible tenants, never vacant, and is enhancing fast in value; owner is forced to sell, and it must be sold within the next few days. Price, $26,000. We can arrange terms. See us at once; let us make you a profit as we are doing for others.

Coffee.

New York, October 10.—Coffee futures opened steady at a decline of two to five points, in sympathy with lower European cables. Trading was quiet, and during the early session late months ruled pretty steady on support from trade sources or covering, but there was very little snap to the buying, and while there was nothing fresh in the way of Brazilian news, the market eased off slightly during the afternoon. The close was barely steady at a net loss of five to ten points. Sales were reported of 23,500 bags.

Havre unchanged to half lower; Hamburg ¼@¾ lower. Rio barely steady, 5@8.00; Santos, 50 reis lower, 4s 5$700; 7s, 5$250. Brazilian exchange on London unchanged, 18 1/4 d.

Receipts at the two Brazilian ports, 69,000 bags, against 108,000 last year. Jundiahy receipts 48,800 bags, against 71,500 last year. New York warehouse deliveries on Saturday 28,537 bags, against 16,294 last year. Fine weather was reported in all districts of Sao Paulo.

Spot coffe quiet; Rio No. 7 10⅞ all; Santos, No. 4, 11¾; mild coffee quiet; Cordova, 11¼@13¾. Futures ranged as follows:

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, October 10.—The sharp reaction in Liverpool was due and was rather more than expected, bringing about a greater decline here than looked for, but the support given by the leading bulls rallied the market above last night, to close some 7 to 8 points lower. After such a decline abroad, we look for an advance there of some 6 points tomorrow, in order to be on the same basis as during the past few days. No cold wave is in sight, so that it seems likely we will not have a frost this week, while last season we had a frost in the Atlantic tonight. There is a tendency toward larger estimates, due to the growing weather since September 1, but there is little change in the speculative sentiments, which remains bullish.

Spinners have been calling cotton freely during the past week. A meeting was held today at luncheon by the bankers now here from England to meet the American bankers over the bill of lading dispute. Nothing as yet has been arranged, as our banks are forbidden by law to do what the European bankers require. We still believe a settlement will be reached. The trouble is interfering with buyers and the movement of the crop.

ON THE MARIETTA CAR LINE, eleven miles out, fifty-acre farm, well improved. Cars stop in front of this property. Has a good three-room house, barn, stable, young orchard and about 30 acres in a good state of cultivation. I want $125.00 an acre for this farm. The adjoining land sold for $160.00 an acre with no improvements. Can give some terms.

AT SMYRNA, just outside of city limits, on two public roads, I am offering 16 acres for $3,500. This is a pretty place. Has a four-room house, two barns, good Bermuda pasture, young orchard, nice spring and spring branch, house is in good repair. I can sell this for $1,000 cash and $500.00 a year. This is the best bargain on this car line.

The Advice of One of America's Greatest Citizens

On the subject of life insurance, Grover Cleveland once said: "With the facilities offered by sound and trustworthy American life insurance companies, I can scarcely understand how any prudent or sensible man, engaged in active work or business, and not possessing an assured income and fortune, should fail to protect himself and those dependent on him by a reasonable amount of life insurance. It seems to me that to do this is but to discharge a duty imperatively suggested by intelligent foresight and wise precaution."

The cost of life insurance is small, too, when one considers all the good to be derived therefrom.

Empire Life, old line, legal reserve, offers safe, sane, insurance protection. Its contracts are liberal, and without a flaw.

MAJOR HANSON GOES EAST FOR REST OF THREE WEEKS

Major J. F. Hanson, president of the Central of Georgia Railway Co. and the Ocean Steamship Co. of Savannah, has just gone to New York, and will visit other points in the east for rest and recuperation following his recent operation.

He will be away for three weeks, returning about November 1 to his office in Atlanta, when he will resume his official duties after an absence of some three months or more as the result of his recent severe illness.

Major Hanson's many friends are congratulating him upon the strenuous but successful fight he made against the disease which seemed at one time to have progressed so far that his death was considered a matter of only a few hours. There was no way out of it but an operation, but that, together with his splendid vitality and in spite of his seventy years, did the work, and he is now said to be entirely restored to health with the exception of the natural weakness following his recent experiences.

He said he felt fine on leaving Atlanta for his rest, and that he expected shortly to return to his office ready to take up his work where he left it off when he was stricken.

PRESS HUDDLESTON AIDS LADIES PAY WATER BILLS

When the city hall was a jam of human beings yesterday afternoon and hundreds of people crowded into the lower hallway to pay their water bills, a large number of ladies were present who did not like the idea of getting mixed up in the crush. City Clerk Press Huddleston saw their predicament and he went to their rescue. Taking a pad and a pencil, he volunteered to pay the water bills for them. They gladly gave him their names and addresses and handed him the money.

For more than half an hour Mr. Huddleston worked in this way, and he succeeded in assisting about 200 very thankful ladies. Just before the waterworks office closed, Mr. Huddleston stepped up and paid the 200 bills he had taken from the ladies.

Nearly all the ladies asked for Mr. Huddleston's card and told him they would not forget his kindness.

OPEN AIR PUBLIC SCHOOL FOR TUBERCULOSIS CHILDREN

Mont Clair, N. J., October 10.—Twenty-one Mont Clair children threatened with tuberculosis began to study and recite their lessons in an open-air public school this morning, and it is proposed they shall study all winter under a large tent. The children wear woolen sweaters and woolen caps, and on extreme cold days blocks of heated soapstone will be put in the bottoms of the sitting bags. An outer reefer and gloves complete the uniform. Hot milk and crackers will be served during the morning, and a hot luncheon will be served at noon. The pupils will be weighed once a week, and stucial treatment will be prescribed for those who lose weight.

WHERE BOLL WEEVIL DID GREATEST DAMAGE

Madison Parish, in Louisiana, Was the Worst Sufferer.

Washington, October 10.—The greatest damage done to the cotton crop by the boll weevil this season was in the district of Madison parish, Louisiana, south of Baton Rouge, according to what Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the bureau of entomology of the department of agriculture. He had just returned after an investigation of the boll weevil situation.

"There are all told about 50 enemies of the boll weevil," said Dr. Howard. "The government has introduced six of these parasites to Louisiana and other states, and we intend to turn loose at least six more."

5,000 Girls on Strike.

New York, October 10.—Five thousgirls, makers of neckties, went on strike today for better working conditions. The girls say more workers will go out unless their terms are granted.

VICTORY IS SCORED BY THE RAILROADS

Commerce Commission Not Allowed to Cut Lumber Rate.

St. Paul, October 10.—Judges Sanborn, Hook, Van Deventer and Adams, in the United States circuit court, today upheld the findings of Master-in-Chancery F. M. Dickson, in the suit brought by the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and Union Pacific railroads to enjoin the interstate commerce commission from enforcing the reduction in lumber rates from Portland to St. Paul and Chicago.

All exceptions by both sides were overruled. The action of the court is a victory for the railroads.

Cotton Firm Suspended.

New York, October 10.—The suspension of the cotton brokerage firm of Argo, Jester & Co. was announced on the cotton exchange this afternoon. It is said the firm's open interest in the market was small.

CURRY FORFEITS BOND OF $1,000

Indicted For Shooting at Senator Mays, He Fails to Appear in Court.

Frank Z. Curry, who was indicted on four counts by the grand jury for attempting to shoot Senator S. H. Mays, failed to appear in the criminal court yesterday morning when his case was called for trial, thereby forfeiting bond in the sum of $1,000.

Nat Arnold, of Athens, is bondsman for Mr. Curry, and unless Mr. Arnold surrenders Mr. Curry the latter will go free until the next court term.

A new bench warrant will then be issued for Mr. Curry's arrest.

Judge C. B. Conyers, of Brunswick, is presiding this week over the sessions of the criminal superior court.

One of the first things he did was to sentence a negro named John Wilson to twenty-four years in the penitentiary. Wilson was charged with fifteen burglaries. Three true bills were made against him, and in each instance he was given eight years.

C. M. Lancaster, a bailiff in Justice R. R. Jackson's court, has been indicted for larceny after trust, and will be tried this week before Judge Conyers.

He is charged with having taken $3.50 that was entrusted to him by J. S. Stewart to pay a debt.

Another case of interest is that of L. B. Storey, accused of having received stolen goods from a negro named Jack Hugley.

Hugley stole some printing machinery and material from the receiver of the old Turner Printing Company, and Storey is alleged to have received the stuff.

Hugley was convicted and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

BIG WAREHOUSES FOR COLLINS STREET

Property and the Houses Are Now For Sale.

If the plans now on foot are carried out successfully Collins street property will undergo great improvement in the near future, for it is an almost assured fact that several big warehouses will be located on the street.

The property is now on sale and has been for several weeks. While no absolutely definite step has been taken to secure any of it, there is a rumor out, from good authority, that options have been secured by two well-known business houses.

The buildings are also for sale, and will be torn down just as soon as they are purchased.

That this section will soon become improved as much as other central real estate is a certain thing. It is expected that a deal will be closed in the next few days for a portion of the street.

The children are fat and happy when they eat KKK Flour.

DUTY ON ROSINS HAS BEEN REMOVED

Naval Stores People Disappointed in Decision of Court.

Savannah, Ga., October 10.—That a decision adverse to the nited States had been rendered by the board of general appraisers in the rosin duty case in which the Fairbank Company was the appellant, became known here today when President J. A. G. Carson, of the Savannah board of trade, received a telegram from T. J. Deharty, special United States attorney, who has been in chage of the government's interests.

The decision was rendered by the board in New York and is equivalent to a ruling of the United States circuit court. The news was a distinct surprise to naval stores people here and caused widespread disappointment among them, as it was considered a foregone conclusion that the ruling of the secretary of the treasury, imposing the duty on imported rosins, would be upheld by the board.

The case was instituted by the Fairbank Company several months ago to test the validity of the ruling of the secretary of the treasury, which was made shortly after the new tariff schedule became effective. During the pendency of the case before the general board of appraisers, the tariff on imported rosins had been effective, hence no foreign rosin has been imported into this country, the tariff being practically prohibitive.

Efforts will be made shortly to induce the secretary of the treasury to appeal the case to the custom court of appeals which, in matters appertaining to the interpretation of the tariff, etc., is a court of final resort.

Funeral of L. W. Gray.

Macon, Ga., October 10.—(Special)—The funeral of L. W. Gray was conducted this afternoon at the residence on Boundary and Adams streets by Rev. Paul Ellis. A large number of the friends of the family and the unfortunate man were present. The remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery. The pallbearers were J. J. Cobb, P. E. Dennis, George Watson, W. F. Elder, John Poe, and John R. Tappan.

No Hope for Buried Men.

Starkville, Col., October 10.—As darkness settled tonight over the entrance to the Starkville mine, the hope that had buoyed up the watchers at the pit mouth throughout the day that some of the fifty or more men entombed there would be found alive, grew faint and gloom settled again over the silent crowd.

WILL PUT STRIPES ON BLIND TIGERS

Judge Maddox Delivers Notable Charge to Floyd Grand Jury.

Rome, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—At the opening of adjourned term of Floyd superior court today, Judge Maddox delivered a notable charge to the grand jury. He said he had tried for ten months to train people who are violating the prohibition law that they had better stop.

This seemed to have had no effect. He put them on notice that if they are convicted before him he will turn them over to the county and put them in the chaingang.

"When I get the real thing, I will put stripes on them without alternation of a fine. These people who think they can volate the law with me on the bench and the jury of Floyd county doing their duty will be shown."

In these words Judge Maddox announced his intention of imposing chaingang sentences on those convicted in Floyd superior court of violating the prohibition law.

On the question of pistol-toting he quoted an editorial in The Atlanta Constitution referring to report of the Macon coroner which declared that 35 deaths had been due in one year to the "pistal-toter" in Macon; whereas only 14 had been killed in the big railroad yards.

He urged the grand jury to get after the man killer.

"Some of them are waiting in jail for you. Clear off this old stock and let us prepare for the Christmas activities," said he.

"As I have said before, some day there will be a hanging in Floyd county.

"I would regret to pass such a sentence, but would do it if necessary."

ARCHITECT IS HERE FOR HURT THEATER

Hughs Tallent and Mr. Hurt Discuss the Plans.

Hughs Tallent, of the well-known firm of Herts & Tallent, of New York City, the architects for the new theater which is being erected by Joel Hurt on Exchange place, was in the city yesterday discussing plans for the building.

The process of construction is going on rapidly, and as soon as the foundations are completed the architect expects to push the work of the main structure.

While there are no great changes to be made in the general plans, Mr. Hurt and the architect went into the details of the building, and it is probable that slight alterations may be made.
